

WAC 352-74-070 Additional fees and release of bond or damage deposit. After completion of filming/still photography the director or designee shall determine if any additional fees are to be assessed a film maker/still photographer and whether or not any bond or damage deposit submitted by a film maker/still photographer may be released.

If the director or designee determines that no additional fees are to be assessed and that a bond or damage deposit is to be released, then a bond or damage deposit shall be returned to a film maker/still photographer.

If the director or designee determines that additional fees are to be assessed or that a bond or damage deposit is not to be released, then the film maker/still photographer shall be so informed.

If a film maker/still photographer pays additional fees in the form of a check or money order payable to the Washington state parks and recreation commission which is submitted to the director within thirty days of receipt of the notice to pay the fees, then the director or designee shall return a bond or damage deposit to a film maker/still photographer.

If a film maker/still photographer does not pay additional fees within the time period and in accordance with the procedures set forth above, then the director or designee shall exercise the rights of the commission under a bond or damage deposit to pay the additional fees and so inform a film maker/still photographer or exercise any such other legal rights as may be available.
