

WAC 118-04-160 Establishment of state standards. When appropriate, and with input from local emergency management and law enforcement agencies as well as volunteer organizations, state standards may be established for classes of individual emergency workers and for search and rescue specialties. Upon establishment of a state standard, training programs within the state shall, at a minimum, comply with that standard.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 38.52 RCW. WSR 93-23-005 (Order 93-08), § 118-04-160, filed 11/4/93, effective 12/5/93.]