

WAC 135-100-140 County may modify proposed system after public hearing. After the county's public hearing, and before the county legislative authority takes final action on the conservation district request to impose a special assessment, the county legislative authority may modify or amend the proposed system of assessments. The conservation district may provide such assistance as needed for the county legislative authority to modify or amend the proposed system of assessments. The county legislative authority may not modify a conservation district's proposed budget or alter the intended allocation of special assessment funds.
