

WAC 192-130-070 Sending eligibility determinations—RCW

50.20.180. (1) The department will send an eligibility decision based on a job separation issue to the following:

(a) The last employer, if the claimant was separated from employment for reasons other than lack of work;

(b) A previous employer from whom the claimant has a potentially disqualifying separation as provided in WAC 192-130-060 if the claimant was separated from employment for reasons other than lack of work;

(c) To any employer since the beginning of the claimant's base year who provides information that the claimant was discharged for gross misconduct connected with the work.

(2) The department will send an eligibility decision based on an issue other than a separation from employment to an employer if the employer provides relevant information about the claimant's eligibility for a specific week.
