

WAC 230-17-152 Brief adjudicative proceedings—Appeal rights.

(1) Any party to a brief adjudicative proceeding may request review of the initial order by filing a written petition for review to us.

(2) We must receive your petition for review within twenty-one days after service of the initial order.

(3) Your petition for review must contain any evidence or written material relevant to the matter that the party wishes the reviewing officer to consider.

(4) Parties must serve copies of the petition to all other parties or their representatives at the time the petition for review is filed.

(5) The chair of the commission or the commissioners shall be the reviewing officer(s).

(6) The reviewing officer(s) consider your appeal and either uphold, modify or overturn the brief adjudicative proceeding order. The decision of the reviewing officer(s), also called an order, is the final agency decision. The order will be provided to you at the last address you furnished to the commission.

(7) The order on review must be in writing, must include a brief statement of the reasons for the decision, and must be entered within ten business days after the petition for review is considered. The order shall include a description of any further available administrative review or, if none is available, a notice that judicial review may be available.
