

WAC 352-74-045 Filming/still photography fees. (1) Permit application fee - Each application shall be accompanied by the appropriate application fee, based on the amount of time between the date of application and the date of facility use, which shall be in the form of a check or money order payable to the Washington state parks and recreation commission.

(2) Site location fee - Prior to commencing filming/still photography activities or otherwise as specified by the director or designee, each applicant shall pay an additional site location fee, set by the director or designee based on the magnitude and duration of the impact on park resources and normal public use, the uniqueness of the site, and such other considerations as the director or designee deem appropriate.

(3) Previous filming/still photography which is later commercially merchandised will be subject to the same rules and provisions as new projects described herein.
