

WAC 381-100-135 Opportunity to waive hearing. (1) The individual, after service of the violations specified and rights and privileges forms, may waive their right to a community custody violation hearing, and admit guilt to the alleged violations.

(2) If the waiver is accepted by the board, the board may do one or more of the following:

(a) Reinstate the individual on community custody with the same or modified conditions of supervision;

(b) Impose an appropriate sanction short of revocation; or

(c) Revoke the individual's community custody, enter an order of community custody revocation, and return the individual to prison. A determination of a new minimum sentence shall be made within 30 days of return to state custody.

(3) If the waiver is rejected by the board, a community custody violation hearing will be scheduled.
