

WAC 388-14A-4512 When may the division of child support certify a noncustodial parent for license suspension? The division of child support (DCS) may certify a noncustodial parent (NCP) as being in non-compliance with a support order and may request the department of licensing (DOL) or any other licensing entity to suspend the NCP's license if:

(1) The NCP has failed to make a timely objection to a notice of noncompliance served under WAC 388-14A-4505. A timely objection must be filed within twenty days of receipt of the notice, or within sixty days of receipt if the notice was served outside of the state of Washington;

(2) The NCP has failed to file a motion with the appropriate court or administrative forum to modify the child support obligation within twenty days of service of the notice of noncompliance served under WAC 388-14A-4505 (or within sixty days if the notice was served outside of the state of Washington);

(3) The NCP has failed to comply with a payment agreement entered into under WAC 388-14A-4520;

(4) A hearing results in a final administrative order which determines that the NCP is not in compliance with a child support order and has not made a good faith effort to comply;

(5) The court enters a judgment on a petition for judicial review upholding an administrative order that determined that the NCP is not in compliance with a child support order and did not made a good faith effort to comply;

(6) The NCP has failed to comply with a payment schedule ordered by an administrative law judge (ALJ) under WAC 388-14A-4530; or

(7) The NCP failed to make satisfactory progress toward modification of the support order after a stay was granted under WAC 388-14A-4515(2).
