

WAC 388-14A-7315 When might DCS deny a request for a determination of controlling order? (1) The division of child support (DCS) may deny a request for determination of controlling order made by a party to a child support order or another state's IV-D agency for the following reasons:

(a) There is only one support order for the obligor and the children;

(b) There is no current support owing under any existing support order for the obligor and the children; or

(c) There has already been a determination of controlling order performed for the obligor and the children.

(2) The denial of a request for determination of controlling order does not:

(a) Stop the party or other state's IV-D agency from bringing an action in superior court.

(b) Give rise to a right to administrative hearing.
