WAC 4-04-180 RE-EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS. A candidate who passes two or more subjects, or the single subject of accounting practice, at any examination, shall receive a conditional credit for such subject or subjects and shall have the right to be re-examined in the remaining subject or subjects within a period of three years. During the three-year period he may take the examination as many times as he wishes and shall receive a conditional credit for each portion of the examination he passes. If he passes the remaining subject or subjects within the three-year period, he shall be considered to have passed the examination: PROVIDED, That if the applicant has not passed all remaining portions of the examination within the three-year period, he shall lose all conditional credits: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board, in its discretion, may extend the three-year period to a longer time period for good cause and in the interest of justice. Good cause includes, but is not limited to, chronic debilitating illness of the candidate or a member of his immediate family, and service in the armed forces of the United States: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no portion of this rule shall apply to any applicant who has successfully completed at least one part of the accounting examination prior to August 9, 1969.
