Dear Sir:

We enclose herewith for filing a certified copy of regulation XII, an additional regulation which was recently unanimously adopted by the Washington State Apple Advertising Commission.

Yours very truly,

Elwood Hutcheson

REGULATION XII

An apple grower shall not be deemed ineligible to be elected as a grower member of this Commission by reason of (1) his selling and marketing commercially in the trade and shipping in interstate commerce or otherwise, apples grown by himself, nor by reason of (2) his owning and operating a warehouse where he packs and/or stores apples grown by others as well as those grown by himself; provided, however, that he shall be ineligible therefor if he commercially sells and markets apples grown by others. Any candidate for such position shall upon request furnish his affidavit as to the facts concerning his eligibility.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of additional regulation XII which was duly unanimously adopted by the Washington State Apple Advertising Commission at its regular monthly meeting on October 25, 1960 at the Chinook Hotel, Yakima, Washington and is now in full force and effect.

Secretary-Manager of Washington State
Apple Advertising Commission
