Repeal: WAC 67-30-005, WAC 67-30-310, WAC 67-30-320

(2) ALTERNATIVE A. Use only for Adoption of Permanent Rules.

This action is taken pursuant to Notice No. 82-13-108 filed with the code reviser on 6-23-82. These rules shall take effect:
 thirty days after they are filed with the code reviser pursuant to RCW 34.04.040(2).
 at a later date, such date being _____.

(2) ALTERNATIVE B. Use only for Adoption of Emergency Rules.

We, _____, find that an emergency exists and that this order is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare and that observance of the requirements of notice and opportunity to present views on the proposed action would be contrary to public interest. A statement of the facts constituting the emergency is:

These rules are therefore adopted as emergency rules to take effect upon filing with the code reviser.

(3) Pursuant to the requirements of RCW 34.04.026¹ that "every agency shall incorporate the most specific, but in no case omit all, of the following language alternatives when adopting or amending rules" fill in statement (a), (b), or (c) as appropriate:

(a) This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW _____ and is intended to administratively implement that statute.

(b) This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW Chapter 74.16 which directs that the

Washington State Commission for the Blind
(agency)

has authority to implement the provisions of

Chapter 74.16 RCW, Aid to Blind Persons
(name of act or RCW citation)

(c) This rule is promulgated under the general rule-making authority of the Washington State Commission for the Blind
(agency)

as authorized in RCW 74.16.450

(4) The undersigned hereby declares that the agency has complied with the provisions of the Open Public
Meetings Act (chapter 42.30 RCW), the Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.04 RCW), and the State Register Act (chapter 34.08 RCW) in the adoption of these rules.

(5) This order, after being first recorded in the order register of this governing body, is herewith transmitted to the Code Reviser for filing pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW and chapter 1-12 WAC.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-005 DEFINITIONS. (1) "Accepted for services" shall mean that the commission has determined that the applicant has been certified as eligible to receive vocational rehabilitation services.

(2) "Act" means the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. chapter 16).

(3) "Applicant" shall mean an individual who has submitted to the commission a letter or application requesting vocational rehabilitation services which:

(a) Has been signed by the individual, his parents or guardian or other representative; and

(b) Sets forth the name, address, age, sex, and nature of disability of the requesting individual and source of referral.

(4) "Blind or visually impaired" for purposes of this chapter is a physical disability defined as follows:

(a) Central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting lenses or a field defect in which the peripheral field has contracted to such an extent that the widest diameter of visual field subtends an angular distance of no greater than 20°; or

(b) Vision so defective as to prevent the performance of ordinary activities for which eyesight is essential; or

(c) An eye condition of a progressive nature which may lead to blindness.

(5) "Client" shall mean any handicapped individual:

(a) Who has applied for services from the commission; and

(b) For whom services have not been denied or terminated by the commission.

(6) "Commission for the blind" shall mean the legal authority in its entirety:

(a) "Commission board" shall mean the five members appointed by the governor as the governing body.

(b) "Commission" shall mean the agency which carries out the operations of the Washington commission for the blind.

(7) "Director," except when the context indicates otherwise, means the director of the commission for the blind.

(8) "Eligible" or "eligibility," when used in relation to an individual's qualification for vocational rehabilitation services, refers to a certification that:

(a) The individual has blindness and may also have a physical or mental disability which for such individual constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment; and

(b) Vocational rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to benefit the individual in terms of employability.

(9) "Employability" refers to a determination that the provision of vocational rehabilitation services is likely to enable an individual to enter or retain employment consistent with his capacities and abilities in the competitive labor market; the practice of a profession; self-employment; homemaking; farm or family work (including work for which payment is in kind rather than in cash); sheltered employment; homebound employment; or other gainful work.

(10) "Evaluation of rehabilitation potential" means, as appropriate, in each case:

(a) A preliminary diagnostic study to determine:

(i) That an individual has blindness and may also have a physical or mental disability which for such individual constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment; and

(ii) That vocational rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to benefit the individual in terms of employability, and that the individual is eligible therefore for vocational rehabilitation services;

(b) A thorough diagnostic study consisting of a comprehensive evaluation of pertinent factors, which bear on the individual's handicap to employment and rehabilitation potential, and an appraisal of the individual's work behavior and ability to develop work patterns suitable for successful job performance in order to determine which vocational rehabilitation services may be of benefit to the individual in terms of employability;

(c) Any other goods or services provided for the purposes of ascertaining the nature of the handicap and whether it may reasonably be expected that the individual can benefit from vocational rehabilitation services in terms of employability;

(d) The provision of vocational rehabilitation services to an individual for a total period of extended evaluation not in excess of eighteen months for the purpose of determining whether such individual is a handicapped individual for whom a vocational goal is feasible, including the initiation and continuing development of an individual written rehabilitation program, and a periodic assessment of the results of the provision of such services to ascertain whether an individual is an eligible individual for whom a vocational goal is feasible.

(11) "Family member" or "member of the family" means:

(a) Any relative by blood or marriage of a handicapped individual; and

(b) Other individuals living in the same household with whom the handicapped individual has a close interpersonal relationship.

(12) "Handicapped individual" means an individual:

(a) Who has a physical or mental disability which for such individual constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment; and

(b) Who is expected to benefit in terms of employability from the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, or for whom an extended evaluation of rehabilitation potential is necessary for the purpose of determining whether he might benefit in terms of employability from the provision of vocational rehabilitation services.

(13) "Medical consultant" shall mean a doctor of medicine employed by the commission to provide consultation to rehabilitation counselors and rehabilitation teachers concerning the medical aspects of rehabilitation, usually reviewing and discussing medical problems of individual clients.

(14) "Ophthalmological consultant" shall mean a doctor of medicine specializing in diseases of the eye employed by the commission to provide consultation to rehabilitation counselors and rehabilitation teachers regarding procedures and prognosis relating to eye conditions.

(15) "Physical and mental restoration services" means those services which are necessary to correct or substantially modify within a reasonable period of time a physical or mental condition which is stable or slowly progressive.

(16) "Physical or mental disability" means a physical or mental condition which materially limits, contributes to limiting or, if not corrected, will probably result in limiting an individual's activities or functioning. The term "physical disability" includes blindness and/or visual impairment.

(17) "Public safety officer" means a person serving the United States or a state or unit of general local government, with or without compensation, in any activity pertaining to:

(a) The enforcement of the criminal laws, including highway patrol, or the maintenance of civil peace by the national guard or the armed forces;

(b) A correctional program, facility, or institution where the activity is potentially dangerous because of contact with criminal suspects, defendants, prisoners, probationers, or parolees;

(c) A court having criminal or juvenile delinquent jurisdiction where the activity is potentially dangerous because of contact with criminal suspects, defendants, prisoners, probationers, or parolees;

(d) Firefighting, fire prevention, or emergency rescue missions.

(18) "Referral" is defined as any individual who applied or has been referred to a commission office by letter, telephone, direct contact or by any other means for whom the minimum information has been furnished:

(a) Name and address;

(b) Disability;

(c) Age and sex;

(d) Date of referral; and

(19) "Rehabilitation facility" means a facility which is operated for the primary purpose of providing vocational rehabilitation services to handicapped individuals and which provides one or more of the following services for handicapped individuals:

(a) Vocational rehabilitation services which shall include under one management, medical, psychological, social, and vocational services;

(b) Testing, fitting, or training in the use of prosthetic and orthoptic devices;

(c) Prevocational conditioning or recreational therapy;

(d) Physical and occupational therapy;

(e) Speech and hearing therapy;

(f) Psychological and social services;

(g) Evaluation of rehabilitation potential;

(h) Personal and work adjustment;

(i) Orientation and mobility training and other adjustment services;

(j) Braille instruction;

(k) Evaluation or control of specific disabilities;

(l) Transitional or extended employment for those handicapped individuals who cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market provided that all medical and related health services must be prescribed by, or under the formal supervision of, persons licensed to prescribe or supervise the provision of such services in the state.

(20) "Rehabilitation teacher" (RT) shall refer to an employee of the commission who has responsibility to determine eligibility, and to develop and implement individual written rehabilitation programs leading to a vocational outcome of homemaker. The full range of vocational rehabilitation services may be provided or purchased as determined by the needs of the individual written rehabilitation program.

(21) "Substantial handicap to employment" means that a physical or mental disability (in light of attendant medical, psychological, vocational, educational, and other related factors) impedes an individual's occupational performance, by preventing his obtaining, retaining, or preparing for employment consistent with his capacities and abilities.

(22) "Vocational rehabilitation counselor" (VRC) shall refer to an employee of the commission who has direct responsibility for providing, or supervising the provision of all vocational rehabilitation services to a client of the commission.

(23) "Vocational rehabilitation services," shall mean any of the following:

(a) Any goods or services provided to a client that is likely to enable him to enter or retain employment consistent with his capacities and abilities in the competitive labor market.

(b) Any goods or services provided to a client for the purpose of extended evaluation to determine his rehabilitation potential.

(c) The establishment, construction, development, operation, and maintenance of workshops and rehabilitation facilities.

(d) The provision of any facilities and services which promise to contribute substantially to the rehabilitation of a group of individuals but which are not related directly to the rehabilitation program.

(24) "Workshop" means a rehabilitation facility, or that part of a rehabilitation facility, engaged in a production or service operation and which is operated for the primary purpose of providing gainful employment or professional services to the handicapped as an interim step in the rehabilitation process for those who cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market or during such time as employment opportunities for them in the competitive labor market do not exist.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-010 APPLICATION FOR SERVICES. (1) Any blind or visually impaired person may apply for vocational rehabilitation services, including persons who have previously applied for, have previously received, or have previously been denied such services.

(2) Any handicapped person seeking to obtain vocational rehabilitation services from the commission shall submit a written application for services to the commission.

(3) The written application for services shall be signed by the person requesting services or by his parent or guardian or other representative.

(4) The written application shall contain the following information:

- (a) The applicant's name and address;
- (b) The nature of the applicant's disability;
- (c) The applicant's age and sex;
- (d) The date of application;
- (e) The name of the person or agency, if any, who has referred the applicant to the commission.

(5) The commission shall not provide vocational rehabilitation services to any person who has failed to submit a signed application in writing containing the above information.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-015 INITIAL INTERVIEW. (1) An applicant for vocational rehabilitation services shall be interviewed personally by a vocational rehabilitation counselor or by a vocational rehabilitation teacher as soon as possible after application.

(2) At this initial interview the interviewer shall:

- (a) Explain to the applicant the nature and operation of the vocational rehabilitation program as it relates to the applicant;

- (b) Specifically inform the applicant of his right to appeal from any decision made by the commission with regard to his case through administrative appeal and fair hearing procedures; judicial review; review by the secretary of the federal office of education;

- (c) Inform the applicant of his right of confidentiality of information possessed by the commission; and

- (d) Obtain any general information from the applicant which might be useful in determining his eligibility for vocational rehabilitation services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-020 PRELIMINARY DIAGNOSTIC STUDY. (1) A preliminary diagnostic study will be conducted to determine whether:

(a) The individual has a physical or mental disability which for such individual constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment; and

(b) Vocational rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to benefit the individual in terms of employability, or whether an extended evaluation of rehabilitation potential is necessary to make such a determination.

(2) The preliminary diagnostic study will include such examinations and diagnostic studies as are necessary to determine eligibility:

(a) In all cases, will include an appraisal of the current general health status of the individual; and

(b) In all cases, will include an examination of the individual's eyes by an ophthalmologist, a physician skilled in the diseases of the eye or by a licensed optometrist.

(3) The commission shall record in writing the results of each applicant's preliminary study.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-025 ELIGIBILITY FOR SERVICES. (1) The commission shall make an eligibility determination as to every applicant for vocational rehabilitation services. The determination of eligibility shall be made as soon as possible after application.

(2) The commission shall base its eligibility determination on the results of the preliminary diagnostic study and extended evaluation, if any.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-030 ELIGIBILITY FOR SERVICES--CRITERIA. (1) Eligibility shall be based only upon:

(a) The presence of a physical or mental disability which for the individual constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment; and

(b) A reasonable expectation that vocational rehabilitation services may benefit the individual in terms of employability.

(2) Persons found eligible shall have a primary disability of blindness or visual impairment. Persons for whom blindness or visual impairment is determined to be a secondary disability may be provided services at the discretion of the director or may be referred to other appropriate service providers or may be provided services through a coordinated plan with other service providers.

(3) Eligibility requirements will be provided by the commission without regard to sex, race, age, creed, color, or national origin of the individual applying for service.

(4) No person or group of persons shall be found ineligible for services solely on the basis of type of disability.

(5) No person shall be found ineligible for services solely on the basis of age.

(6) No person shall be found ineligible for services based on residence requirement, durational or other.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-050 CERTIFICATION FOR DECISION OF ELIGIBILITY OR INELIGIBILITY. (1) There will be a certification that the individual has met the basic eligibility requirements specified in eligibility criteria. The statement of eligibility will be dated and signed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher.

(2) Whenever it has been determined on the basis of clear evidence that an individual is ineligible for vocational rehabilitation services, there shall be a certification, dated and signed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-055 NOTICE TO APPLICANT. (1) The individual shall be notified in writing of the action taken on eligibility or ineligibility.

(2) He shall be informed of the commission's procedure for administrative review, fair hearings, and judicial review if he is dissatisfied with the commission's decision.

(3) If the applicant was determined to be ineligible for vocational rehabilitation services, the certification shall clearly specify how he failed to meet the criteria of eligibility.

(4) If the applicant was determined to be eligible for vocational rehabilitation services, the notice shall clearly specify the date of certification of eligibility.

(5) Decisions of ineligibility will be reviewed at least annually. The individual will be given a full opportunity to participate in the review and reconsideration of eligibility.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-060 CRITERIA FOR THE SEVERELY HANDICAPPED. A severely handicapped individual is a handicapped individual:

(1) Who has a severe physical or mental disability which seriously limits his functional capacities (mobility, communication, self-care, self-direction, work tolerance or work skills) in terms of employability; and

(2) Whose vocational rehabilitation can be expected to require multiple vocational rehabilitation services over an extended period of time; and

(3) Who has one or more physical or mental disabilities resulting from amputation, arthritis, blindness, cancer, cerebral palsy, cystic fibrosis, deafness, heart disease, hemiplegia, hemophilia, respiratory or pulmonary dysfunction, mental retardation, mental illness, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, musculo-skeletal disorder, neurological disorders (including stroke and epilepsy), paraplegia, quadriplegia, and other spinal cord conditions, sickle cell anemia and end-stage renal disease, or other disability or combination of disabilities determined on the basis of an evaluation of rehabilitation potential to cause comparable substantial functional limitation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-070 EXTENDED EVALUATION. Extended evaluation is the process by which diagnostic and other vocational rehabilitation services are provided to an applicant for the limited purpose of facilitating the determination of his rehabilitation potential and eligibility. Extended evaluation is provided only when a determination of eligibility has not and can not be made within the usual eligibility determination procedure.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-075 EXTENDED EVALUATION--ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA. Furnishing of vocational rehabilitation services under an extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential shall be based only upon:

(1) The presence of a physical or mental disability, which for the individual, constitutes or results in a substantial handicap to employment (physical disability includes a primary disability of blindness or visual impairment); and

(2) An inability to make a determination that vocational rehabilitation services might benefit the individual in terms of employability unless there is an extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-077 CERTIFICATION FOR EXTENDED EVALUATION TO DETERMINE REHABILITATION POTENTIAL. Prior to, and as a basis for providing an extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential, there will be a certification that the individual has met the eligibility requirements. The certified statement will be dated and signed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-080 EXTENDED EVALUATION--PROGRAM. (1) After certification for extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential, an individualized written rehabilitation program shall be developed jointly by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher and the handicapped individual or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian or other representative.

(2) A copy of the written program and any amendments thereto shall be provided to the handicapped individual or, as appropriate, parent, guardian or other representative.

(3) The program shall include the basis on which a determination of eligibility has been made that an extended evaluation of rehabilitation potential is necessary.

(4) The program shall specify the nature of the vocational rehabilitation services necessary to determine the client rehabilitation potential and shall specify the arrangements which shall be made to provide for and/or otherwise secure such necessary services.

(5) The projected rate for the initiation of each vocational rehabilitation service, the anticipated duration of each such service, and the time within which the objectives and goals for each individual might be achieved.

(6) The terms and conditions for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services including:

(a) Responsibilities of the handicapped individual in implementing the individualized written rehabilitation program;

(b) The extent of client participation in the cost of services based on the financial need of the client; and

(c) The extent to which the individual is eligible for similar benefits under any other program.

(7) An assurance that the handicapped individual has been informed of his rights and the means by which he may express and seek remedy for his dissatisfactions, including the opportunity for an administrative review of the commission's action and fair hearings; and the opportunity for judicial review.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-085 EXTENDED EVALUATION--SERVICES PROVIDED. The following vocational rehabilitation services will be available to individuals:

(1) Evaluation, including diagnostic and related services;

(2) Counseling and guidance;

(3) Physical and mental restoration services;

(4) Training, including personal and vocational adjustment, books, tools, and other training materials;

(5) Maintenance;

(6) Transportation;

(7) Services to members of a handicapped individual's family when such services are necessary to the adjustment of rehabilitation of the handicapped individual;

(8) Reader services for the blind;

(9) Interpreter services for the deaf;

(10) Telecommunications, sensory and other technological aids and devices; and

(11) Other goods and services including rehabilitation teaching and orientation and mobility which are necessary to determine the client's rehabilitation potential.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-090 EXTENDED EVALUATION--SERVICES NOT PROVIDED. The following goods and services cannot be provided until decisions have been reached as to a client's specific employment objectives and, therefore, shall not be provided under an extended evaluation plan:

(1) Placement;

(2) Occupational tools and equipment or initial stocks and supplies;

(3) Business enterprises;

(4) Occupational licenses.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-095 EXTENDED EVALUATION--DURATION AND SCOPE OF SERVICES. (1) Vocational rehabilitation services necessary for the determination of rehabilitation potential, including those provided within a thorough diagnostic study, may be provided to a handicapped individual for a total period not in excess of eighteen months.

(2) Other conditions:

(a) The extended evaluation period shall begin with the date of the certification for extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential. Only one period not in excess of eighteen months shall be permitted during the period that the case is open. If a case has been closed as a result of determination that the handicapped individual's needs have changed, such a case may be reopened and a subsequent evaluation of rehabilitation potential may be carried out, provided that the conditions in "basic conditions of extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation" are met.

(b) Vocational rehabilitation services authorized after the expiration of the extended evaluation period will be provided only if the certification of eligibility required has been executed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-100 EXTENDED EVALUATION--ASSESSMENT. A thorough assessment of the individual's progress will be made as frequently as necessary, but at least once in every ninety-day period during the period in which services are being provided under an extended evaluation of rehabilitation potential, including periodic reports from the institution, facility, or person providing the services, to determine the results of the provision of such services and to determine whether such individual may be determined to be eligible or ineligible.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-105 EXTENDED EVALUATION--REVISION OF PROGRAM. A program of extended evaluation may be revised at any time and shall be revised as necessary if the needs of the client have changed or problems have arisen which have interrupted the provision of extended evaluation services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-110 EXTENDED EVALUATION--TERMINATION. (1) At any time prior to the expiration of an eighteen-month extended evaluation period, the extended evaluation for the determination of rehabilitation potential shall be terminated when:

(a) The individual is found eligible for vocational rehabilitation services since there is a reasonable assurance that he can be expected to benefit in terms of employability from vocational rehabilitation services; or

(b) The individual is found ineligible for any additional vocational rehabilitation services since it has been determined on the basis of clear evidence that he cannot be expected to benefit in terms of employability from vocational rehabilitation services.

(2) In such cases the procedures outlined in WAC 67-20-280 must be followed.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-120 CERTIFICATION OF TERMINATION OF EXTENDED EVALUATION AND NOTICE. The certification of termination of extended evaluation and notice is applicable when the following is considered:

(1) Certification of eligibility for regular case services. Prior to, or simultaneously with acceptance of a handicapped individual for vocational rehabilitation services, there will be a certification that the individual has met the requirements specified. The certified statement will be dated and signed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher.

(2) Certification of ineligibility. When it has been determined beyond any reasonable doubt that an individual is ineligible for vocational rehabilitation services, there shall be a certification, dated and signed by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher. Such certification of ineligibility will be made only after full participation with the individual or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian or other representative, or after affording a clear opportunity for such consultation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-180 ECONOMIC NEED. (1) The commission shall provide the following services regardless of the economic need of the client receiving the services. However, when available, client insurance may be utilized to help defray the costs of services:

- (a) Diagnostic and related services;
- (b) Counseling;
- (c) Training;
- (d) Placement.

(2) The following vocational rehabilitation services shall be provided by the commission only if the client receiving the services is eligible for such services on the basis of economic need:

- (a) Transportation, except where provided in connection with diagnostic services;
- (b) Placement tools, equipment, and initial stocks and supplies;
- (c) Occupational licenses;
- (d) Maintenance, except where provided in connection with diagnostic services;
- (e) Other goods and services necessary for the client rehabilitation, including post-employment services necessary for the client's rehabilitation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-185 ECONOMIC NEED--FINANCIAL STATEMENT REQUIRED. An applicant accepted for vocational rehabilitation services or accepted for extended evaluation to determine rehabilitation potential shall be required to furnish the commission with:

- (1) Such information in detail regarding his financial assets, income, debts, obligations, and expenses as may be necessary to enable the commission to make a determination of his economic need;
- (2) A disclosure of insurance coverage which may apply to vocational rehabilitation services;
- (3) A signed statement indicating whether he is in need of financial assistance from the commission to participate in those vocational rehabilitation services which are conditioned upon economic need.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-190 ECONOMIC NEED--STANDARDS FOR DETERMINING. (1) A client shall be eligible on the basis of economic need to receive vocational rehabilitation services or extended evaluation services from the commission when the total of his/her obligations, debts, and expenses is equal to or exceeds the total of his/her income and nonexempt assets or resources. When the value of his/her income and nonexempt assets is greater than the value of his/her obligations, debts, and expenses, the excess of the former over the latter shall be made available by the client for the payment of the cost of those services which are conditioned upon economic need.

(2) Determination of a client's economic need involves an evaluation of the income, assets, debts, obligations, and expenses of his/her entire family unit, including his/her dependents or, if the client is an unemancipated minor, his/her parents.

(3) The following shall be considered income for the purpose of determining the economic need of a client:

(a) Wages paid to the client and to any dependent family members living in the home. For purposes of this section wages shall be equal to gross wages less deductions for income taxes, social security, taxes, retirement deductions, and other involuntary deductions;

(b) Contributions from relatives or others, in cash or in kind, on a regular and predictable basis;

(c) Net profit from roomers or boarders;

(d) Net profit from property rentals;

(e) Net profit from farm products;

(f) Net profit from business enterprises;

(g) Scholarship or fellowship funds;

(h) Income from public or private welfare agencies;

(i) Any other income received on a regular and predictable basis, including but not limited to alimony, dividends from stocks, annuity payment, unemployment compensation, insurance, pensions, etc.

(4) The following types of property shall be considered exempt assets and may not be considered in determining the client's economic need:

(a) The home occupied by the client or his/her family, including any contiguous real property. A house trailer is an exempt asset when it is being regularly occupied by the client or his/her family as the principle place of residence or when it will be so occupied in the predictable future;

(b) Household furniture, clothing, life insurance, and other personal effects;

(c) An automobile when one or more of the following conditions is met:

(i) The client and his/her family have only one automobile, or

(ii) All automobiles used by the family are for the purpose of transportation to work or school, or

(iii) The automobile has been furnished in whole or in part to the client or to one of his/her dependents by the veteran's administration, or

(iv) The automobile is essential to the client's vocational rehabilitation objective;

(d) Vocational equipment and machinery owned by the client is an exempt asset if it is being used to provide part or all of the living expenses of the client and his/her dependents or if it may be so used after completion of the vocational rehabilitation plan;

(e) Livestock is an exempt asset to the extent that it produces income or otherwise helps the client to meet normal living requirements.

(5) All types of tangible and intangible property, including but not limited to real property, personal property, stocks, bonds, savings accounts, and checking accounts, which are not exempt under subsection (4) of this section shall constitute the client's nonexempt assets and shall be considered in determining the client's economic need. The value of a nonexempt asset shall be equal to its fair market value less any unpaid encumbrances of record.

(6) The following obligations, debts, and expenses shall be deducted from the client's income and nonexempt assets in determining the client's economic need:

- (a) The client's actual shelter and living expenses;
- (b) Shelter and living expenses for the client's dependents;
- (c) Payments which the client is required to make under court order;
- (d) Outstanding taxes on earnings or personal or real property;
- (e) Insurance premium payments;
- (f) Contractual payments on real or personal property if such obligations were incurred prior to the client's application for vocational rehabilitation services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-200 ECONOMIC NEED--NOTIFICATION OF DECISION. When it is determined that the client shall be required to contribute financially to his rehabilitation, the commission shall explain to him when, how, and for what services his funds will be used.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-255 THOROUGH DIAGNOSTIC STUDY. (1) There will be a thorough diagnostic study which will determine the nature and scope of services needed by the individual, and which will consist of a comprehensive evaluation of pertinent medical, psychological, vocational, educational, and other related factors which bear on the individual's handicap to employment and rehabilitation needs.

(2) The thorough diagnostic study will be sufficient in each case to determine the vocational rehabilitation services which are needed to attain vocational goals of the handicapped individual, and that the findings of such study will be recorded in the individualized written rehabilitation program.

(3) The thorough evaluation shall include, to the extent necessary, an appraisal of the following factors:

- (a) Intelligence level;
- (b) Educational achievements;
- (c) Work experience;
- (d) Ability to function in the community;
- (e) Personal, vocational and social adjustment;
- (f) Employment opportunities;
- (g) Patterns of work behavior;
- (h) Ability to acquire occupational skills;
- (i) Capacity for successful job performance which may include trial job situations (simulated or real) to assess capabilities to perform adequately in a work environment.

(4) The thorough evaluation shall include specialty medical examinations as required below whenever the individual is known to have the following conditions:

- (a) Blindness or visual impairment - ophthalmological or optometric evaluation;
- (b) Hearing impairment or deafness - otological and audiological evaluation;
- (c) Mental retardation - psychological evaluation;
- (d) Mental illness - ~~psychological~~ ^{psychological} evaluation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-260 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM--INDIVIDUAL WRITTEN REHABILITATION PROGRAM. The individualized written rehabilitation program shall place primary emphasis on the determination and achievement of a vocational goal, and as appropriate, shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to statements concerning the following:

(1) The basis on which the determination of eligibility has been made;

(2) The long-range employment goals established with the individual and the intermediate rehabilitation objectives related to the attainment of such goals;

(3) The determination of the specific vocational rehabilitation services to be provided in order to achieve established employment goals and the terms and conditions for the provision of such services;

(4) The projected rate for the initiation of each vocational rehabilitation service, the anticipated duration of each such service and the time within which the objectives and goals for each individual might be achieved;

(5) The terms and conditions for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services including responsibilities of the handicapped individual in implementing the individualized written rehabilitation program;

(a) Extent of client participation in the cost of services based on the financial need of the client; and

(b) Extent to which the individual is eligible for similar benefits under any other programs.

(6) An assurance that the handicapped individual has been informed of his rights and the means by which he may express and seek remedy for his dissatisfactions, including the opportunity for an administrative review of action or fair hearings; judicial review; and review of the director's decision by the secretary of the federal office of education;

(7) The basis on which the individual has been determined to be rehabilitated; and

(8) Any plans for the provision of post-employment services after a suitable employment objective has been achieved and the basis on which such plans are developed.

(9) A copy of the written program, and any amendments thereto shall be provided to the handicapped individual, or, as appropriate, his parents, guardian or other representative.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-270 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM--PARTICIPATION OF CLIENT. The individualized written rehabilitation program shall be developed jointly by the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher and the handicapped individual or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian or other representative, and a copy of the written program, and any amendments thereto, shall be provided to the handicapped individual or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian or other representative.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-275 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM--ANNUAL REVIEW. The individualized written program shall be reviewed as often as necessary but at least on an annual basis at which time each handicapped individual, or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian or other representative will be afforded an opportunity to review such program and, if necessary, jointly redevelop its terms.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-280 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM--TERMINATION. When the services are terminated under a written program on the basis of a determination that a vocational goal cannot be achieved and the client is then no longer eligible, the following conditions and procedures will be made and carried out:

(1) Such decision shall be made only with full participation of such individuals or as appropriate, his parent, guardian, or other representative.

(2) The views of the individual or his representative concerning the decision shall be recorded in the individualized written program.

(3) The rationale for such decision must be thoroughly documented and included as a part or amendment to the written rehabilitation program.

(4) The client will be informed that his case will be reviewed within twelve months, offering the individual clear opportunity for full consultation and reconsideration of such decision of ineligibility. Subsequent reviews may be made only upon his request.

(5) Consultation or annual review would not be scheduled if:

(a) There is a recorded statement by the individual indicating that he does not want to have further consideration;

(b) Individual is uncooperative and shows lack of interest;

(c) Individual is no longer in the state;

(d) Individual's whereabouts are unknown;

(e) Individual's medical condition is rapidly progressive or terminal;

(f) There are other compelling reasons that would make an annual review impractical.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-281 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM--NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS. Upon termination the individual will be informed of his rights and the means by which he may express and seek remedy for his dissatisfactions, including the opportunity for an administrative review of the commission's action; fair hearings; and judicial review.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-300 OBJECTIVE OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION. The objective of vocational rehabilitation services is to enable an individual to enter or retain employment consistent with his capacities and abilities in the competitive labor market, the practice of a profession, self-employment, homemaking, farm or family work (including work for which payment is in kind rather than in cash); sheltered employment; homebound employment; or other gainful work. Vocational rehabilitation services will be limited to those necessary to fit the client for his vocational objective not only for the moment, but have suitable continuing employment in varying economic conditions. However, if a handicapped individual wishes to change occupations or to progress beyond industry accepted norms for competent entry level employment, the commission has no obligation to provide further assistance.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-325 SERVICES AVAILABLE FROM OTHER AGENCIES. The commission's funds shall not be expended to purchase services for which a client is eligible from another agency which has primary responsibility for providing the needed service. In all cases, full consideration will be given to any similar benefits available to a handicapped individual on any other program.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-350 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES. Each client accepted for services may be provided such rehabilitation services found by the diagnostic study to be necessary for the realization of his rehabilitation objective including but not limited to:

- (1) Evaluation of rehabilitation potential;
- (2) Counseling and guidance;
- (3) Physical and mental restoration services;
- (4) Vocational and other training services, including personal and vocational adjustment, books, tools, and other training materials;
- (5) Maintenance;
- (6) Transportation;
- (7) Services to members of a handicapped individual's family when such services are necessary to the adjustment of rehabilitation of the handicapped individual;
- (8) Reader services, note taking, rehabilitation teaching services, and orientation and mobility services for the blind;
- (9) Interpreter services for the deaf and note-taking services for the blind;
- (10) Telecommunications, sensory, and other technological aids and devices;
- (11) Recruitment and training services to provide new employment opportunities and other appropriate public service employment;
- (12) Placement in suitable employment;
- (13) Post-employment services, necessary to assist handicapped individuals to maintain suitable employment;
- (14) Occupational licenses, tools, equipment, initial stocks (including livestock), and supplies; and
- (15) Other goods and services which can reasonable be expected to benefit a handicapped individual in terms of employability.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-385 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--PHYSICAL AND MENTAL RESTORATION. (1) Physical and mental restoration shall include all medical and related services including the following:

- (a) Medical treatment including but not limited to therapeutic programs under medical supervision, necessary laboratory work, and necessary medication;

- (b) Surgical treatment; surgery for cardiac or gynecological conditions shall be provided only if approved by the medical consultant;
- (c) Psychiatric treatment only when the diagnostic study clearly indicates a favorable prognosis for relatively short-term therapy. A program of psychiatric treatment which will extend beyond twelve months must have the prior approval of the medical consultant;
- (d) Dental treatment only when it will significantly increase employability or remove an established vocational handicap, or in emergency situations involving pain, acute infections, or injury. Examples of disabling dental conditions for which restorative services may be authorized include widespread ulceration of teeth, destruction of tooth structures, decay which seriously affects the individual's ability to eat, badly malformed or positioned teeth, or rejection of the individual from employment on the basis of his appearance. Restorative dental services will not be provided when the restoration will not directly affect employability;
- (e) Nursing services;
- (f) Hospital (either inpatient or outpatient care) and clinic services;
- (g) Convalescent, nursing, or rest home care only when there is an expectation of a normal period of convalescence after which other appropriate services leading to the rehabilitation of the client may be initiated or resumed. Such care shall not be provided by the commission as a long-term process for conditions not expected to improve;
- (h) Drugs and supplies;
- (i) Prosthetic, orthoptic or other assistive devices essential to obtaining or retaining employment;
- (j) Eyeglasses;
- (k) Podiatry;
- (l) Physical therapy; physical therapy shall consist of the employment of the physically beneficial properties of light, heat, cold, water, electricity, massage, manipulation, exercise, and mechanical devices as treatment of disease or injury;
- (m) Occupational therapy; occupational therapy shall include all manual skills and recreational activities which provide specific active exercise for physical disabilities and shall include psychologic rehabilitation techniques;
- (n) Medical or medically-related social work services;
- (o) Medically directed speech or hearing therapy.
- (2) Physical and mental restoration will be provided on an exception basis after exhausting all other resources; clients needing physical restoration will be referred to the prevention of blindness program.
- (a) Clients needing physical restoration who appear to be eligible will be referred to the prevention of blindness program;
- (b) Medical emergencies to prevent eminent loss of sight or prevent severe service interruption will be provided with the approval of the supervisor.

NEW SECTION

- WAC 67-20-390 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--TRAINING--COLLEGE. (1) College training may be provided when
- (a) The nature of the client's disability is such as to require college training to place him on a reasonably competitive basis in a suitable occupation.
- (b) The client's previous school record or other indications of achievement demonstrate an ability to successfully carry on and benefit from college training.
- (c) Evaluation of the client's motivation, study habits, personality and character traits, or other similar factors, indicates that it would be appropriate to provide him with college training even though he has otherwise failed to meet minimal intellectual or academic achievement standards.

(2) A client provided with college training services shall be required to meet established scholastic standards. If his grades fall below the standards required in the field of his choice, it may be necessary to select a new objective for his college training program through joint planning between the client and the vocational rehabilitation counselor or to modify or cancel that portion of his rehabilitation plan which involves college training. If college training is cancelled, the vocational rehabilitation counselor shall then counsel with the client about a vocational objective which does not require college training.

(3) No training or training services in institutions of higher education (universities, colleges, community/junior colleges) shall be paid for with funds under this part unless maximum efforts have been made to secure grant assistance in whole or in part from other sources to pay for such training or training services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-392 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES PROVIDED-- TRAINING--TRADE SCHOOLS. Training may be provided in business, trade and vocational schools. Business, trade and vocational training facilities shall include but not be limited to beauty schools, barber colleges, business schools where secretarial, accounting, and other office work skills are taught, schools for the training of licensed practical nurses, and trade schools teaching such skills as welding, draftsmanship, electrical engineering, radio repair, etc. Such facilities may be either publicly or privately owned and operated.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-394 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES PROVIDED-- TRAINING--EMPLOYMENT. (1) Employment training services may be provided to a client when necessary to attainment of the client's vocational goal. "Employment training services" shall mean a program of organized training by which a client is given the opportunity to learn an occupation under actual conditions of commercial, industrial, or other on-the-job employment.

(2) Employment training services shall be provided to an individual client only when the vocational rehabilitation counselor has established that the following conditions have been or will be met:

(a) The training program has been prepared and outlined in detail and in advance;

(b) The client's training will follow a definite schedule of specified operations, instructions, and practices which will insure well-rounded preparation for the client's selected occupation;

(c) A mutual understanding has been reached between the trainee--client, the trainer--employment training facility, and the vocational rehabilitation counselor as to the provisions of the client's employment training plan, including length of the training period, financial arrangements, and operations and skills to be learned;

(d) The employer will provide careful supervision of the client's work and will submit regular reports on the client's attendance and progress to the vocational rehabilitation counselor;

(e) The training program will meet any requirements for licensing in the trade or occupation which exists in the field or work in which the client is to be employed;

(f) It has been ascertained that the employment training program is acceptable to other employees of the training facility.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-395 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--TRAINING--COLLEGE AND TRADE SCHOOL. (1) No training or training services in institutions of higher education (universities, colleges, community/junior colleges) or trade or business schools shall be paid for with vocational rehabilitation funds unless the client has demonstrated application for, and denial of, other grants and scholarships.

(2) Tuition at institutions of higher education will be limited to the amount charged at the University of Washington or the actual cost, whichever is less.

(3) Books and academic supplies will be limited to seventy-five dollars per quarter or one hundred ten dollars per semester for a full academic load. Students attending less than full time will have the amount authorized for books and supplies reduced proportionately.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-396 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--TRAINING--SHELTERED WORKSHOP. (1) The commission may provide work adjustment services (employability training) to clients in a sheltered workshop environment. Work adjustment is appropriate where the client's disability is such as to limit his ability to participate in and take advantage of employment training facilities in the competitive labor market, and shall follow a vocational evaluation which will at the least include a measurement of productivity, behavior in interpersonal situations, work characteristics, and manipulative skills.

(2) The purpose of work adjustment services in sheltered workshops shall be to:

(a) Assist clients in understanding the meaning, value, and demands of work;

(b) Modify or develop attitudes, personal characteristics, and work behaviors;

(c) To develop functional capacities as required in order to assist clients toward their optimum level of vocational adjustment.

(3) Vocational adjustment in a sheltered workshop shall meet the following criteria:

(a) There shall be an individualized written program establishing immediate and long-range goals and objectives developed and monitored by a qualified staff person.

(b) The program will be in direct response to those problems defined in the evaluation process.

(c) Methods used to correct client problems and to develop acceptable work behaviors will be defined in writing and monitored and reported on at least monthly.

(d) All programs will be developed with the full knowledge and agreement of the vocational rehabilitation counselor or rehabilitation teacher and the client.

(e) Work adjustment services will always aim toward the eventual placement of the client into competitive employment.

(f) Work adjustment services will be undertaken only in state certificated rehabilitation facilities as of January 1, 1983.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-400 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--MAINTENANCE.

(1) Maintenance services include the client's basic living expenses, such as food, housing, clothing and health care needs, and other subsistence expenses which are essential to enable him to receive full benefit from other vocational rehabilitation services.

(2) Maintenance services may be provided to the extent necessary to enable a client to derive the full benefit of other vocational rehabilitation services.

(3) Maintenance may be provided at any time during the rehabilitation process, or following placement, until such time as the client has actually received remuneration for his employment, for a period not to exceed sixty days.

(4) Maintenance services provided in connection with diagnostic services shall be provided without regard to the economic need of the client. The provision of maintenance services in connection with any other type of service shall be conditioned on the economic need of the client.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-432 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--TELECOMMUNI-

CATIONS. (1) The provision of telecommunications, sensory or other technological aids and devices, individualized prescriptions and fittings must be performed by individuals licensed to fill such prescriptions and licensed to perform such fittings in accordance with state licensure laws, or be appropriately certified professionals. Aids and devices not requiring individual fittings must meet engineering and safety standards recognized by experts in the field.

(2) Telecommunications may be utilized when service delivery methods can be improved by the use of these devices. Cost benefit will be considered in the development of telecommunication services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-444 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--POST-EMPLOY-

MENT SERVICES. (1) The commission may provide such follow-up services to clients after placement as are necessary to insure that the placement is suitable and that the vocational rehabilitation of the individual has been achieved.

(2) The commission may provide post-employment services to a client whose case has previously been terminated as "rehabilitated" when such services are necessary to overcome emergent or latent problems related to the original disability or handicap for which he was receiving services prior to termination.

(3) All follow-up and post-employment services provided will have the same requirements to meet the economic needs test as those services that require the needs test for a regular program of services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-446 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION--SERVICES TO GROUPS.

(1) Services to groups of handicapped persons may be provided when such services will result in a benefit to the individual members' vocational rehabilitation.

(2) Members of such groups must be eligible for vocational rehabilitation services.

(3) Special services to groups may include but are not limited to the production of brailled and recorded materials.

(4) These services shall not include removal of architectural barriers.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-452 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES PROVIDED--OTHER GOODS AND SERVICES. (1) Such other goods and services may be provided to the client as are essential to a determination of his rehabilitation potential, to his rehabilitation plan, or to render him fit to engage in a gainful occupation.

(2) The provision of other goods and services shall be conditioned upon the economic need of the client except when provided in connection with diagnostic services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-500 PURCHASE OF SERVICES. The commission may purchase training from schools or sheltered workshops, or from business establishments which offer on-the-job training services.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-505 PURCHASE OF SERVICES--SELECTION CRITERIA--SCHOOLS. (1) In determining whether a particular school is appropriate and acceptable as a training facility, the vocational rehabilitation counselor shall evaluate the curriculum, quality of training, and adequacy of total resources in relation to the client's needs. The vocational rehabilitation counselor may also consider such factors as the placement services, if any, offered by the facility, the convenience of the physical arrangements of the plant and their adaptability to the needs of the client, and the willingness of school authorities to adopt and make available such equipment as is necessary to aid the client in the most efficient pursuit of his training.

(2) The use of schools for training purposes shall generally be limited to those which are accredited, licensed, or approved either by a legal authority, or are recognized as adequate by the professional or trade group with which they are associated. The commission shall attempt to utilize for training purposes those schools and other training facilities which provide the client with the credits, credentials, diplomas, or other certifications required by the profession or trade which is the goal of the client's rehabilitation program.

(3) Tax supported schools shall be used in preference to nontax supported schools whenever possible and appropriate in light of the vocational objective of the client in question.

(4) Prior to the use of a school as a training facility the vocational rehabilitation counselor shall advise the client involved about the status of the school in which the training program will be carried out. The client shall be made particularly aware of any limitation of job opportunities which might result from the use of a school or facility of limited or no accreditation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-510 PURCHASE OF SERVICES--SELECTION CRITERIA--EMPLOYMENT TRAINING FACILITIES. A business or industrial establishment which is to be utilized by the commission for the provision of employment training services shall meet the following criteria:

- (1) The facility has personnel qualified for instructional purposes by knowledge, skills, and personality;
- (2) The facility has sufficiently diversified operations and adequate and suitable materials and equipment to insure a trainee thorough preparations and training within the scope and limits of his occupational objective;
- (3) The training of clients is only incidental to the business activity of the facility, and in no case shall the major activity of the facility be the training of clients.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-525 TERMINATION OF SERVICES FOR REASON OF INELIGIBILITY. (1) Services under a written program are to be terminated on the basis that a vocational goal cannot be achieved and the client is then no longer eligible.

- (2) Whenever it has been determined based on clear evidence that an individual is ineligible for vocational rehabilitation services there shall be a certification, dated and signed by an appropriate staff member and placed in the individual's file.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-530 TERMINATION OF SERVICES FOR REASONS OTHER THAN INELIGIBILITY. Vocational rehabilitation services shall be terminated when a client:

- (1) Has died;
- (2) Cannot be located by the commission after reasonable efforts to do so;
- (3) Has been institutionalized under circumstances which preclude the provision of services for a substantial or indefinite period of time;
- (4) Has moved to another jurisdiction and the commission has been unable either to continue provision of services or to refer the individual to an appropriate agency within the other jurisdiction;
- (5) Removes himself for consideration by declining to accept or utilize vocational rehabilitation services after all reasonable efforts have been expended to encourage participation.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-540 COMPLETION OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM. Services shall be terminated on the basis of the completion of the client's vocational rehabilitation if:

(1) The program of rehabilitation services as set forth in the client's rehabilitation plan has, insofar as possible, been completed. Services may be terminated in spite of the failure to comply with this requirement only if the vocational rehabilitation counselor and the client have mutually decided that it is necessary and/or appropriate for the client to accept employment before completing the total plan of services set forth in his rehabilitation program; and

(2) Substantial rehabilitation services have been rendered to the client by the commission. No client shall be terminated as rehabilitated unless the commission has provided him with the following substantial services:

(a) Adequate and necessary guidance in developing an understanding of his capacities and limitations, his vocational potentialities, and the health, personal, and social problems related to his vocational adjustment;

(b) Assistance in understanding the services available from the commission and other community resources and in obtaining and utilizing these services to achieve the best possible vocational adjustment;

(c) Counseling and assistance in adjusting to situations encountered during the rehabilitation process, such as control of anxieties concerning physical restoration, development of appropriate study and work habits, improving personal appearance, managing finances, and devising effective interpersonal relationships;

(d) Completion of alternative skills training.

(3) The client must have been, as a minimum, determined to have achieved a suitable employment objective which has been maintained for a period of time not less than sixty days. An occupation shall be considered suitable when, after a reasonable period of time has passed since placement, it has been confirmed that the following conditions have, insofar as possible, been met:

(a) The client and employer are mutually satisfied;

(b) The client is maintaining adequate interpersonal relationships and acceptable behavior in the employment environment;

(c) The occupation is consistent with the client's capacities, skills, and abilities;

(d) The employment and working conditions will not aggravate the client's disability, and his disability in the employment situation will not jeopardize the health or safety of himself or others;

(e) The wage and working conditions conform to state and federal legal requirements;

(f) The employment is regular, reasonably permanent, and the client receives a wage commensurate with that paid other workers for similar work.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-545 NOTIFICATION OF TERMINATION. The commission shall provide written notification to every individual who has applied for services whenever any determination is made to terminate services to him. Such written notice shall specify in detail the reasons for the commission's decision to terminate services and shall clearly inform the client of his right to an administrative review, a fair hearing on the decision, and judicial review.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-550 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION--DISCLOSURE. (1) The term "confidential information" shall mean all information and records as to personal facts regarding any past or present clients of the commission, given or made available to the commission, its representatives, or its agents in the course of the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program, including, but not limited to, lists of clients' names and addresses, information with respect to clients' financial resources, records of the commission's evaluations of factual information regarding a client, and all other information about a client, whether recorded or not recorded.

(2) The commission shall disclose confidential information, whether directly or indirectly, only under the following circumstances:

(a) Where necessary to and directly connected with the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program; or

(b) Where required by order of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(c) Where the client has given his informed consent in writing to such disclosure.

(3) The commission shall refuse to disclose confidential information even when disclosure has been expressly or impliedly requested by the client if the information in question has been provided to the commission on the basis that it will not be disclosed to the client. Information so withheld shall be briefly identified and listed, and said list shall be provided to the client or his authorized representative. Such confidential information shall be provided to the client only under the following circumstances:

(a) Where the person or agency which provided the information has given the commission express written authorization to release the information to the client; or

(b) Where, during the course of a fair hearing, the hearing officer has made a determination that the information in question is relevant and material to the issue under appeal and has ordered that said information be made available to the client.

(4) Confidential information may be disclosed or released to an employer in connection with the placement of a client. The commission shall release to an employer only such confidential information regarding a client as is essential to his successful placement.

(5) Confidential information may be disclosed or released to welfare agencies or programs from which the client has requested services if:

(a) The client has requested services under circumstances from which his consent may be presumed;

(b) The welfare agencies or programs involved have adopted regulations which will assure that the confidential information disclosed will continue to be held confidential; and

(c) The welfare agency or program involved can assure that the confidential information disclosed shall be used only in connection with application for and receipt of services from such agency or program.

(6) Confidential information may be disclosed or released to organizations or individuals engaged in research if:

(a) The research is directly connected with the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program;

(b) The organization or individual has furnished satisfactory assurance that the confidential information will be used only in connection with the research purposes for which it is provided;

(c) The organization or individual furnishes satisfactory assurance that the final product of the research shall not reveal any information that might serve to identify any person about whom information has been obtained from the commission without the written consent of the person involved and of the commission.

(7) Upon written request, information shall be released to the client, or, as appropriate, his parent, guardian, or other representative in connection with any proceeding or action for benefits or damages, including any proceeding or action against any public agency: PROVIDED,

(a) That only such information as is relevant to the needs of the client shall be released; and

(b) In the case of medical or psychological information, the knowledge of which may be harmful to the client, such information will be released to the parent, guardian, or other representative of the client by the commission, or to the client by a physician or by a licensed or certified psychologist.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-560 ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW. (1) Any client who feels aggrieved by, or is otherwise dissatisfied with, any decision or action by the commission or its agents with regard to his vocational rehabilitation case may file a request with the commission for, and shall thereupon receive, an administrative review and redetermination of that decision or action.

(2) A request for an administrative review may be made either verbally or in writing and may be filed in any office of the commission. A verbal request shall promptly be reduced to writing.

(3) All requests for administrative review shall:

(a) Specify the date of the decision or action being appealed;

(b) Specify as precisely as possible the issue to be resolved by the administrative review;

(c) Set forth the address of the client or of his representative; and

(d) Be signed by the client or by his representative.

(4) A request for an administrative review must be made within sixty days after receiving notice from the commission of the decision or action by the commission which is the basis for the request for review.

(5) An administrative review and redetermination shall be provided by the director's designee, and shall be provided within thirty days after the submission of the request for review.

(6) Within fifteen days after the conclusion of the administrative review the designee shall certify his findings to the client in writing specifying in reasonable detail the reasons for his findings and informing the client of his right to request and receive a fair hearing if dissatisfied with those findings.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-570 FAIR HEARING. (1) Any client dissatisfied with the finding of an administrative review may request from the commission, and shall thereupon be granted, a fair hearing. A client who desires a fair hearing shall request such hearing within thirty days after receiving notice from the commission of the finding of the administrative review.

(2) A request for fair hearing shall be sent to the commission for the blind at 921 Lakeridge Drive, Olympia, WA 98502, who will forward it to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(3) The administrative law judge will make a proposed decision to the director of the commission for the blind who will make a final determination.

(4) The client will be notified in writing by the director within fifteen days of receipt of the administrative law judge's proposed decision.

(5) A client not satisfied with the decision of the director may request a review of the director's decision by the secretary of the federal education department on the individual written rehabilitation program.

NEW SECTION

WAC 67-20-590 CLIENT RECORDS. The commission will maintain for each applicant for vocational rehabilitation services a case record which will include to the extent pertinent, the following information:

(1) Documentation as to the preliminary diagnostic study, supporting the determination of eligibility, or the determination that an extended evaluation of rehabilitation potential is necessary to make such determination;

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-02, filed 4/30/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-440 Vocational rehabilitation services--Placement)

WAC 67-30-050 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--PLACEMENT.

(1) The commission may provide or cause to be provided placement services to clients under an individualized written rehabilitation program. The commission and clients will be mutually responsible in the endeavor to find and secure suitable employment. While the commission will meet its responsibilities stated in this section, clients will be held responsible under their individualized written rehabilitation programs for actively and independently applying themselves in job-seeking efforts and self-placement.

(2) Placement services prepare a client for work and assist him/her in obtaining appropriate employment and may include the following range of activities:

(a) Organized and identifiable attempts to establish or improve the linkage of a client and a work situation.

(b) Sustained collaboration with the client in a variety of work-oriented activities culminating in the client's engagement in a job, including self-employment.

(c) Communicating and negotiating with a variety of employment resources in the community and other community resources regarding the employment of blind persons. This may or may not be on behalf of specific clients.

(d) Assisting the client in stabilizing himself/herself in a work setting to the point that the placement goal has been satisfactorily achieved.

(3) Placement services may be provided as follows:

(a) Vocational rehabilitation counselors will deliver placement services to clients as a primary function and the principal focus of their professional responsibilities and activities.

(b) A job training and placement counselor whose principle function will be to communicate and negotiate with a variety of community resources, especially employers, regarding the employment of blind persons will provide placement services. This function may or may not be on behalf of specific clients.

(c) Existing, noncost placement resources in the community such as the State Department of Employment Security, projects with industry, and other entities shall be utilized whenever possible.

(d) In certain situations, placement services may be purchased when it is in the client's vocational interests, when the commission's services are not otherwise available, or are offered by a vendor as part of a "package" involving placement as a service. The specific conditions under which placement services may be purchased are addressed in the commission's procedures governing such purchase.

(4) Placement services will be terminated when the client has been provided vocational rehabilitation services in accordance with an individualized written rehabilitation program, and been determined to have maintained a suitable employment goal for at least sixty days.

(5) Suitable placement refers to a determination that the provision of vocational rehabilitation services has enabled a client to enter or retain employment consistent with client's capacities and abilities.

(6) Clients placed by the commission in extended employment in rehabilitation facilities will have their statuses reviewed and reevaluated by the commission at least annually. The commission will make maximum efforts to place these individuals in competitive employment or training for competitive employment whenever feasible.

(7) Placement services will be provided without consideration of similar benefits except when the purchase of placement services is contemplated.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-02, filed 4/30/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-420 Vocational rehabilitation services--Rehabilitation teaching services)

WAC 67-30-070 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--REHABILITATION TEACHING SERVICES. (1) The commission will provide or cause to be provided rehabilitation teaching services to clients by rehabilitation teachers in the employ of the commission. Such services may be purchased by the commission from vendors who meet standards for these services when they are not otherwise available to a client.

(2) Rehabilitation teaching services include specific and identifiable teaching methods that are used to assist blind individuals in acquiring skills in manual dexterity, communication, home orientation, home management and general self-management.

(3) Rehabilitation teaching services may be provided during all phases of the vocational rehabilitation process wherever there is a documented need for them for diagnostic purposes and under a client's individualized written rehabilitation program.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-384 Vocational rehabilitation services--Physical and mental restoration services)

WAC 67-30-080 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--PHYSICAL AND MENTAL RESTORATION SERVICES. (1) Physical and mental restoration services will be provided to or arranged for a client under an individualized written rehabilitation program when, in the judgment of the vocational rehabilitation counselor, in consultation with the medical consultant, it can be determined that:

(a) The clinical status of the client is stable or slowly progressive, as evidenced in the diagnostic study; and

(b) Such services may be expected to eliminate or substantially reduce the handicapping condition in terms of employability within a reasonable period of time; or

(c) When such services will maintain or improve functional capabilities consistent with a client's vocational rehabilitation.

(2) Diagnostic and treatment services for clients with any diseases of the eye will be provided by or under the direction of a qualified ophthalmologist to assure that there is no eye disease or other eye condition which needs consideration.

(3) Authorized physical and mental restoration services may be provided by physicians, dentists, and other health-related professionals who are licensed in the state.

(4) The client has the option, when receiving physical and mental restoration services, to choose the physician or other health-related professional and the appropriate facilities from among those licensed in the state. These service providers and the facilities must be willing to accept reimbursement in accordance with the Washington state department of social and health services schedule of maximum allowances and program descriptions.

(5) For clients in extended evaluation, restorative services may be provided to stabilize or halt progression of a chronic illness for purposes of determining eligibility.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-380 Vocational rehabilitation services--Counseling and guidance)

WAC 67-30-090 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--COUNSELING AND GUIDANCE. Counseling and guidance is a necessary and key function of the vocational rehabilitation counselors in facilitating the development of the individual being served.

(1) Counseling and guidance services will be provided by the commission as necessary to:

(a) Assist the individual to understand his/her capacities, aptitudes and interests.

(b) Assist the individual to understand his/her limitations and the health problems, personal problems and social problems which may be encountered during the course of and after completion of the rehabilitation process.

(c) Assist the client to select a suitable and realistic vocational goal.

(d) Assist the individual to understand the services available to him/her from the commission and other community resources and to understand how such resources can best be obtained and utilized in his/her rehabilitation process.

(e) Assist the individual to adjust to situations encountered during the rehabilitation process. This may include but not be limited to control of anxieties concerning physical restoration, development of appropriate study and work habits, improvements in physical appearance, management of finances, preparation for job interviews and tests, and the establishment and maintenance of effective interpersonal relationships.

(f) Family members, relatives and friends of the individual to aid and assist in the rehabilitation process.

(g) Prospective employers to determine whether the individual has chosen a feasible and appropriate vocational goal.

~~(2) ((Counseling and guidance will be provided without regard to economic need.~~

~~(3)--Counseling and guidance is a necessary and key function of the counselors in facilitating the development of the individual being served.~~

~~(4)--Counseling and guidance is an ongoing process and will continue even though the client may be a student in the commission's rehabilitation center.~~

~~(5)) Counseling and guidance is an ongoing process and will continue, as necessary, throughout all stages of the client's rehabilitation process regardless of the type of services needed, locations of service providers, and length of time needed to complete the rehabilitation.~~

(3) Counseling and guidance will continue even though the client may be a student in the commission's rehabilitation center.

(4) Counseling and guidance will be provided without regard to economic need.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-388 Vocational rehabilitation services--Vocational and other training)

WAC 67-30-100 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--VOCATIONAL ((TRAINING)) AND OTHER TRAINING. (1) The commission may provide, within budget constraints, any organized form of instruction which provides the knowledges and skills that are essential for performing the tasks involved in an occupation. Such knowledges and skills may be acquired through training in an institution, on the job, by correspondence, by tutors or through a combination of these methods. Training may be given for any occupation, except as provided in paragraph (5) below.

(2) The commission will operate and maintain ((a)) an orientation and training center for pre-vocational training for those clients for whom such training in the training center is determined to be appropriate.

(3) Training or training services in institutions of higher education (universities, colleges, community/junior colleges, vocational schools, technical institutes, or hospital schools of nursing) shall not be paid for with rehabilitation funds unless maximum efforts have been made by the commission on the client's behalf to secure grant assistance in whole or in part from other sources to pay for such training or training services. A client must demonstrate application for, and denial of, other grants and scholarships.

(4) The commission may provide, assist in providing, or cause to be provided books, tools and other training materials agreed upon in joint planning of the individualized written rehabilitation program between the counselor and the client. Assistance will be limited to seventy-five dollars per quarter or one hundred ten dollars per semester for full academic load. Students attending less than full time will have amount reduced proportionately.

(5) The Washington state constitution forbids the use of public funds to assist an individual in the pursuit of a career or degree in theology or related areas.

(6) Clients may attend private institutions or out-of-state institutions of higher learning in pursuit of a vocational goal; however, the financial assistance available to any such individual is limited by that amount ~~((available-to-the-same-individual-if-education were--pursued--in-the-highest-cost-public-institution-within-the-state unless-the-private-institution-or-out-of-state--institution--provides the--only--access--to--the--achievement-of-the-individual's-vocational goal))~~ charged at the University of Washington or the actual cost, whichever is less.

(7) The commission may provide, assist in providing, or cause to be provided financial assistance to clients in pursuit of post-graduate degrees when such degree is clearly necessary to achieve employment in a given field. However, financial assistance will not be provided to clients pursuing graduate programs only to enhance their employability or to achieve upward mobility.

(8) Training will be provided to the extent that it meets the criteria established by the client and the agency in the client's individualized written rehabilitation program and meets the standards of the occupation the client intends to enter.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-416 Vocational rehabilitation services--Reader services)

WAC 67-30-120 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--READER SERVICES. (1) The commission will provide or cause to be provided reader services to those clients under an individualized written rehabilitation program who are engaging in vocational training in institutions of higher learning, business schools, technical or trade schools, and other types of training where significant amounts of reading are essential to the completion of the course and/or the advancement of the client's vocational objective. Reader services may also be provided for clients entering employment where substantial amounts of reading are necessary, but only as it relates to the initial stages of their employment.

(2) Reader services ~~((consists))~~ consist of oral reading to the blind individual of ink-print material which is not available through any of the usual, special, nonvisual methods of reading used by blind persons.

(3) Reader services may be provided, despite the availability of alternatives to ink-print, when the client's skills in using nonvisual methods are not sufficient to fulfill the blind client's immediate rehabilitation needs, progress, or initial adjustment in employment.

(4) The employment and rates of payment will be governed by the commission's procedures for purchase of reader services. Ordinarily, readers will be paid no more than the national minimum wage; however, exceptions may be made under the commission's procedures governing reader services.

(5) The commission's vocational rehabilitation program will encourage clients to make the most efficient use of readers; both as a sound economic practice and for the purpose of having clients learn to make effective use of readers in future employment and/or training settings.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-412 Vocational rehabilitation services--Interpreter services for deaf persons)

WAC 67-30-125 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--INTERPRETER SERVICES FOR DEAF PERSONS. The commission will provide interpreter services for deaf persons needing this service in all stages of involvement with the commission while a client or applicant, or during appeal of a contested decision by an employee of the commission which directly affects the client or applicant.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-02, filed 4/30/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-428 Vocational rehabilitation services--Orientation and mobility services)

WAC 67-30-130 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--ORIENTATION AND MOBILITY SERVICES. (1) The commission will provide orientation and mobility services that are consistent with the client's individualized written rehabilitation program (~~and that any problems in training, employment-seeking, employment~~), so that any mobility problems encountered during training, seeking employment and/or post-employment (~~(related to the client's inability to travel independently)~~) are resolved.

(2) Orientation and mobility services shall include systematic and individualized assessment, instruction, and the dissemination of resources information which can enable blind persons to travel independently with optimum efficiency, safety, grace, and self-confidence.

(3) The commission may provide or cause to be provided orientation and mobility services to individual clients through:

(a) Orientation and mobility specialists in the employ of the commission;

(b) Independent orientation and mobility specialists whose qualifications are consistent with commission standards;

(c) Orientation and mobility specialists in the employ of agencies for the blind whose qualifications are consistent with commission standards;

(d) The commission's field services offices by rehabilitation teachers in the client's home environment.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-408 Vocational rehabilitation services--Services to family members)

WAC 67-30-150 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--SERVICES TO FAMILY MEMBERS. (1) Services to family members may be provided to assist a client in successful completion of his/her extended evaluation program or vocational rehabilitation program and subsequent vocational adjustment.

(2) The services provided to family members may include any of the vocational rehabilitation services available to clients of the commission. However, the services must be directly related to the vocational rehabilitation of the client. Family members of any age may be served. Services provided to family members must be documented and justified in ways consistent with agency vocational rehabilitation case documentation procedures and vocational rehabilitation policies.

(3) (~~"Family member" may include any relative by blood or marriage of a client and all other individuals living within the same household where close interpersonal relationships between them and the client characterize a family unit.~~

~~(4))~~ Other resources and similar benefits available to the family member(s) who may be served under this section must be considered under the same rules and conditions as those of the client.

~~((5))~~ (4) When the service provided to a family member(s) no longer substantially contributes to a client's vocational rehabilitation program or extended evaluation program, it will be terminated.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-02, filed 4/30/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-326 Services to civil employees of the United States)

WAC 67-30-170 SERVICES TO CIVIL EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED STATES. The commission will make vocational rehabilitation services available to civil employees of the ~~((U-S-))~~ United States Government who are disabled in the line of duty under the same conditions applied to other handicapped individuals.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-448 Vocational rehabilitation services--Occupational licenses, tools, equipment, initial stocks and supplies)

WAC 67-30-180 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES, TOOLS, EQUIPMENT, INITIAL STOCKS AND SUPPLIES. (1) The commission may provide or cause to be provided, within budget constraints, initial stocks and supplies as required in the client's individualized written rehabilitation program.

(a) Occupational licenses will include any license, permit or other written authority required by a state, city, or other government unit to be obtained in order to enter an occupation or enter a small business.

(b) Occupational tools will include those customarily required for a worker to perform efficiently on the job and normally provided by workers in the same or similar trade or profession, and may also include specialized tools adapted to use for blind persons or any accompanying disabling condition the client may have. Any tools provided must be directly applicable and significantly useful in the employment or training of the client.

(c) Occupational equipment will include occupational fixtures normally found in places of business. These may consist of apparatuses, machinery, and appliances that are usually of a stationary nature during the time of utilization in a particular business trade or profession. However, self-powered vehicles may be provided under this section.

(d) Initial stocks will include the initial inventory of merchandise or goods necessary for a client entering self-employment. It may also include the initial purchase of livestock as a base stock and stocks of seed, fertilizer, fuel, etc., for farming or agricultural self-employment.

(e) Initial supplies will include expendable items necessary to enable the client to carry out the day-to-day operations and which are consumed on the premises in the course of the client's self-employment business.

(2) Occupational tools and equipment will be provided only when provision of such items becomes central to the effective training of a client for a specific occupation or trade and/or effective placement in and employment, self-employment, or post-employment setting where the items will be used.

(3) Initial stocks and supplies will be provided only when a client enters a self-employment business.

(4) The specific kinds of items and the particular methods by which they may be provided under this section are addressed in detail in the commission's procedures governing their provision.

(5) The matters of accountability, legal title, insurance, maintenance and similar considerations with regard to occupational tools, equipment, initial stocks and supplies are addressed in detail in the commission's procedures governing their provision.

(6) In the provision of items under this section, thorough consideration will be given to similar benefits and resources available to the client.

(7) Occupational licenses, tools, equipment, initial stocks, and supplies will be provided based on the clients' economic need.

AMENDATORY/RECODIFICATION SECTION (Amending Order 82-01, filed 2/24/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-20-404 Vocational rehabilitation services--Transportation)

WAC 67-30-185 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SERVICES--TRANSPORTATION. (1) The commission will provide or cause to be provided, within budget constraints, necessary travel and related expenses required to transport clients, thereby enabling them to receive services necessary for the achievement of vocational rehabilitation objectives.

(2) Transportation may include:

(a) Fares or travel costs associated with using public or private conveyances.

(b) Food and/or lodging while in travel status.

(c) Attendants or escorts for clients and the attendants' or escorts' travel costs.

(d) Reimbursement for relocation and moving expenses when a satisfactory adjustment to a job has been made and job security has been established.

(3) Transportation, except as provided during diagnostic services, will be provided based on economic need.

RECODIFICATION SECTION (Recodifying Order 82-02, filed 4/30/82; decodified and recodified as WAC 67-15-010 Physical and informational accessibility)

WAC 67-30-210 PHYSICAL AND INFORMATIONAL ACCESSIBILITY. (1) No otherwise qualified handicapped individual shall, solely by reason of handicap, be excluded from participation, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any commission-provided program or activity.

(2) No handicapped person will be subjected to discrimination because commission-provided facilities are inaccessible to or unusable by handicapped persons. Any construction or alteration to any present or future locations or facility, on behalf of or for the use of the commission, will be readily accessible to and useable by handicapped persons.

(3) No person shall be denied access to commission information, records or materials solely on the basis of his/her inability to utilize such information, records or materials in a customary manner.

REPEALER

The following sections of the Washington Administrative Code are each repealed:

- (1) WAC 67-30-005 POPULATION TO BE SERVED.
- (2) WAC 67-30-310 RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEDICAL CONSULTANT.
