centennial celebration or requesting such other assistance as may be described in the application form, which is available on request, and submit it to the centennial office in Olympia. The Application will enable the commission to consider three aspects in its deliberation:

(i) The project must show promise of contributing directly to public knowledge and appreciation of the history, society or landscape of Washington.

(ii) If the project presents events of Washington history, it must be historically accurate or make adequate disclaimers to protect against perpetuation of errors.

(4) Approved projects may use the commission's centennial logo only when the conditions specified in WAC 100-101-900 are satisfied.

(5) In the event of disagreement with the decision of the executive secretary, either by the applicant recognition or by another group which considers itself affected adversely, the disputed Application and all supporting exhibits shall be referred to the executive committee. The executive committee may decide the issue or may refer the dispute to a standing committee or to the commission. (ii) If the executive secretary issues a letter of encouragement, the letter may be reproduced for publicity purposes or reprinted in the work.

(iii) Issuance of a letter of encouragement does not imply approval to print or otherwise use the centennial symbol in any way.

(b) The commission may endorse publications which make important contributions to the celebration or the understanding of the history or character of Washington

(i) Endorsement allows commercial use of the commission symbol, provided that such commercial use shall be in compliance with WAC 100-101-900.

NEW SECTION

WAC 100-101-1989 INVITATION TO THE PUBLIC. The commission enthusiastically believes the 1989 centennial of Washington's statehood should be an event celebrated by, enjoyed by, participated in, and positively affecting the greatest number and variety of Washingtonians as possible -- young, old, and varied ethnic and cultural backgrounds and interests. The commission encourages and actively seeks citizen input, thoughts, and suggestions, to the end that, in 1989, all Washingtonians can join in "THE CELEBRATION OF THE CENTURY".
