RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF COLLEGE COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Washington State College confirms its commitment to academic freedom, to the concept of a college that encourages the free flow of ideas on all subjects, including controversial issues, and to the opportunity of subjecting all ideas to objective, critical analysis. The College shall not adopt any policy or practice of censorship and shall protect the rights of all speakers and programs guaranteed under the first and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution, and the court decisions interpreting these provisions of the United States Constitution.

Academic freedom, the free flow of ideas, the right to speak and the right to hear must be protected not only from censorship but also from those of disruption. It is the responsibility of all members of the academic community to refrain from such conduct and the College should apply appropriate sanctions under proper procedural safeguards to those who violate this obligation.

Therefore, in accordance with the basic principle of freedom of inquiry, the Central Washington State College makes this specific statement of policy with respect to the appearance of campus speakers and programs that are not part of the college community:

(1) Any faculty or recognized student group may invite to the campus any speaker or program the group would like to hear or see.

(2) The appearance of an invited speaker or program on the campus does not involve an endorsement, either implicit or explicit, of views expressed by this College, its faculty, its administration or its Board of Trustees.

(3) All persons on the campus of the College, whether administrators, faculty, students, employees or guests, are subject to the law. Those who violate the law while on the campus do so at the risk of prosecution in the courts by appropriate government officials.

(2) Budgeted funds to such divisions may be used only by the division to which they are budgeted and for the purpose for which they are budgeted. Such funds cannot be diverted to other purposes through regular budget approval procedures. The authority to expend funds or the authority to invite speakers and/or programs (See WAC 106-124-101) under the aegis of the College and to use the college's name granted by this section shall not be delegated by a division to any other group or organization.

(2) The scheduling of speakers or programs shall be subject to the availability of appropriate space and to the needs of the regularly scheduled college activities. The Scheduling Office shall make all reasonable efforts to arrange suitable space.

(3) All speakers and programs from off campus must be scheduled with the Scheduling Office. To insure adequate preparations, all scheduling of outside speakers and programs shall be completed seven (7) days prior to the engagement. Exceptions to these regulations can be made through the Student Activities Office.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES POLICY

NEW

WAC 106-120-001 RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES. The provisions WAC 106-120-001 through WAC 106-120-999 shall constitute the Student Rights and Responsibilities Policy of Central Washington State College.

NEW

WAC 106-120-010 RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF STUDENTS.

Students at the College neither lose the rights nor escape the obligations of citizenship. Students retain and enjoy all rights secured to citizens by the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State of Washington, and students are obliged to obey the laws of the United States and the State of Washington. The College does, however, distinguish its responsibilities for student conduct from the controls imposed by the wider community. When students are charged with violations of laws of the community, the College will not request or agree to special consideration for students because of their status as students, but the College will cooperate with law enforcement agencies, courts, and other agencies in any program for rehabilitation of students. The College may impose further sanctions after law enforcement agencies or courts have disposed of a case unless the Campus Judicial Council determines that the interests of the College community require sanctions. The College cannot assume the responsibility of parents for the conduct of students and is not responsible for law enforcement off campus.

NEW

It is a principle of the College to solve problems internally whenever possible. Students and College officials should always attempt counseling first for the solution of problems and then utilize other internal College channels.

WAC 106-120-030 DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS. The following definitions of disciplinary terms have been established and may be the sanctions imposed upon violators of Chapter WAC 106-120 by the Dean of Student Development or his designee, The Campus Judicial Council, The President, and the Board of Trustees:

(1) Warning--Notice to a student, either verbally or in writing, that he has been in violation of College rules or regulations or has otherwise failed to meet the College's standards of conduct. Such warnings will include the statement that continuation or repetition of the specific conduct involved or other misconduct will normally result in one of the more serious disciplinary actions described below.

(2) Reprimand--Formal action censuring a student for violation of the College rules or regulations or for failure to meet the College's standards of conduct. Reprimands shall be made in writing to the student by the officer or agency taking action, with copies filed in the office of the Dean of Student Development. A reprimand will include the statement that continuation or repetition of the specific conduct involved or other misconduct will normally result in one of the more serious disciplinary actions described below.

(3) Fines--The Dean of Student Development or his designee or the student hearing committee may assess monetary fines up to a maximum of twenty-five dollars against individual students for violation of College rules and regulations or for failure to meet the College's standards of conduct. Failure to pay such fines within thirty (30) days will result in suspension for an indefinite period of time as set forth in Subsection (6) below provided that a student may be reinstated upon payment of the fine.

(4) Restitution--An individual student may be required to make restitution for damage or loss to College or other property and for injury to persons. Failure to make restitution within thirty (30) days will result in suspension for an indefinite period of time as set forth in Subsection (6) below provided that a student may be reinstated upon payment.

(5) Disciplinary Probation--Formal action placing conditions upon the student's continued attendance for violation of College rules or regulations or other failure to meet the College standards of conduct. The office or agency placing the student on disciplinary probation will specify, in writing, the period of probation and the conditions, such as limiting the student's participation in extra-curricular activities or access to particular college facilities. Disciplinary probation warns the student that any further misconduct will automatically raise the question of suspension from the College. Disciplinary probation may be for a specified term or for an indefinite period which may extend to graduation or other termination of the student's enrollment in the College.

(6) Suspension--Temporary or indefinite dismissal from the College and termination of the student status of a student for violation of College rules or regulations or for failure to meet the College standards of conduct. In the case of an unemancipated minor who is suspended, a copy of the notification of suspension will be sent to the parents or the guardians of the student. There is no refund of fees for the quarter in which the action is taken, but fees paid in advance for a subsequent quarter are to be refunded.

NEW

WAC 106-120-031 -----READMISSION AFTER SUSPENSION.

Any student suspended from the College for disciplinary reasons may be readmitted upon expiration of the time period for which his suspension was issued. If the student has been suspended for an indefinite period, or if he feels that circumstances warrant reconsideration of his temporary suspension prior to its expiration, he may be readmitted following approval of a written petition submitted to the Dean of Student Development or his designee. Such petitions must state reasons which support a reconsideration of the matter. Before readmission may be granted, such petitions must be reviewed and approved by the President, or by the Board of Trustees in those cases in which the President or the Board of Trustees made the final disciplinary action decision.

NEW

(2) The Dean shall make preliminary investigation to determine whether the charges are significant or whether they may be disposed of informally by the Dean without the initiation of disciplinary proceedings.

(3) After investigation the Dean may terminate the formal disciplinary process by dropping the charges or referring the student to the Campus Judicial Council.

(4) If the Dean determines the alleged misconduct requires further disciplinary action, he shall refer the matter to the Campus Judicial Council together with the report of the nature of the alleged misconduct, the name and address of the complainant, the name and address of the person against whom the complaint has been filed, and the relevant facts revealed by the preliminary investigation.

If a student charged with misconduct under this code has been charged with a crime for the same act or closely-related acts by federal, state, or local authorities, or if it appears that such criminal charge is under consideration by said authorities, the Campus Judicial Council should ordinarily postpone action on the complaint until there has been a disposition of the criminal charge or of the consideration of filing such charge. However, the Council may proceed to hear and decide the case prior to the disposition of pending or threatened criminal charges in either of the following instances:

(1) If the student so requests in writing.

(2) If the nature of the alleged misconduct and the circumstances surrounding it pose a serious risk to the health or well being of the student himself or of other members of the College community.

(1) At the meeting with the Dean of Student Development or his designee, the student shall be informed of provisions of the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities that are involved, that he may appeal any sanction imposed by the Dean of Student Development or his designee and that if a hearing is required, he may have that hearing open to the public. If the student requests a formal hearing, the Dean of Student Development or his designee shall take no action nor make any determination in the matter other than to inform the student again of the time, date, and location of the formal hearing.

The president or his designated representative after reviewing the case, including any statement the student may file with the president, shall either give written approval of the action taken by or at the recommendation of the Dean of Student Development or his designee, or give written direction as to what lesser disciplinary action, if any, is to be taken.

The Campus Judicial Council shall have jurisdiction to impose appropriate sanctions for established acts of misconduct, and such sanctions shall be final except in those instances where they may be modified by the Dean of Student Development or his designee upon appeal as hereinafter provided.

(2) Each division of the College may elect to set up separate disciplinary committees to hear cases of alleged misconduct by students in that division whenever, in the opinion of the Dean, the alleged misconduct raises a question of whether the student accused of such misconduct would be an appropriate member of the profession for which education is preparing him. Hearings and procedures before such separate disciplinary councils shall conform with the fundamental elements of a fair hearing and appeal as set forth in section WAC 106-120-055. In cases where a division has not set up its own disciplinary council prior to the occurrence of the actions leading to charges of misconduct by a student, such charges shall be referred to the Campus Judicial Council. In such cases the Campus Judicial Council shall invite the Dean or his designee to give testimony concerning the bearing of such charges of misconduct to the code of ethics and the standards of conduct required for members of his profession.

(3) The teaching, research, or other graduate assistants or other students employed by the College may be brought before the Campus Judicial Council on charges of misconduct as a student whether or not such a misconduct also relates to his employment. Any sanctions imposed by the Campus Judicial Council in such a case may be in addition to termination of the student's employment by the employing agency or department of the College. Any student terminated for misconduct from employment which is a condition of scholarship or fellowship assistance from the College or which is directly and substantially related to the student's chosen academic or professional career shall, at his request, be accorded a full and fair hearing as to the appropriateness of such termination before an Ad Hoc Committee of students and faculty appointed for that purpose by the President.

(4) The Campus Judicial Council disciplinary jurisdiction over all students and student organizations. Organizations which maintain their own disciplinary structure are the Residence Halls and the Cluster Area Judicial Councils. Cases may be appealed from these Councils to the Campus Judicial Council with one week notice by and upon all interested parties. Jurisdiction shall extend to and include all violations of the official policies and regulations governing student organizations and student conduct.

(5) Appeals on decisions of the Campus Judicial Council may be made to the President. Within ten (10) days, his decision may be appealed to the Trustees pursuant to Chapter RCW 28B.19 and WAC 106-08.

(6) So far as practical, sanctions should be devised which compensate for injury, expense, or inconvenience caused by the offending behavior, and in an educational manner. Sanctions may include fines, requirement of certain non-curricular educational programs, probation, limiting of privileges, suspension of the individual.

(7) Due Process. Due process of law is recognized as essential to the proper enforcement of College rules, and accordingly no disciplinary sanction may be imposed on a student by or in the name of the College except in accordance with the provisions of this code.
