HOUSE COMMITTEE ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Minority Member; Dunshee; R. Fisher; Horn; Moak; Rayburn;

Background: A property owner who feels aggrieved by the assessed valuation on his or her property may appeal the valuation to the county Board of Equalization.

Decisions of the county Board of Equalization are appealed to the state Board of Tax Appeals. An appeal to the state Board of Tax Appeals is filed with the local county auditor who transmits a copy to the state Board of Tax Appeals.

Summary of Bill: An appeal of the action of a county Board of Equalization is filed with the state Board of Tax Appeals, rather than with the local county auditor who transmits a copy to the state Board of Tax Appeals.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Testimony For: This will eliminate taxpayer confusion. The auditor no longer is involved with these matters.

Testimony Against: None.

Witnesses: Fred Saeger, Washington Association of County Elected Officials; Sam Reed, Thurston County Auditor; and Matt Coyne, Board of Tax Appeals.
