
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 4218

State of Washington 57th Legislature 2001 Regular Session

By Representatives Esser, Van Luven and Campbell

Read first time . Referred to Committee on .

1 BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 2 STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

3 THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state the 4 secretary of state shall submit to the qualified voters of the state 5 for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to 6 Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington,
7 to take effect for taxes levied for collection in calendar year 2003,
8 to read as follows:

9 Article VII, section 2. (~~Except as hereinafter provided and~~
10 ~~notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate~~ 11 ~~of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all~~ 12 ~~taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any~~ 13 ~~year exceed one percent of the true and fair value of such property in~~ 14 ~~money: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at~~ 15 ~~the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility~~ 16 ~~district)) For taxes levied for collection in calendar year 2003 and 17 thereafter, no taxing district may impose a tax levy upon real or 18 personal property unless the tax levy is approved by the voters as 19 provided in this section. The term "taxing district" for the purposes
20 of this section shall mean the state and any political subdivision,
21 municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency~~

1 authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on 2 property(~~(, other than a port or public utility district. Such~~ 3 ~~aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in~~ 4 ~~conformity therewith may be exceeded only as follows)~~). Furthermore, 5 the year 1990 shall be used as the base year for assessment and 6 valuation determination and from which any property tax increases are 7 proposed and presented by the state, or any previously defined "taxing 8 district," to the affected taxpayers for approval or rejection. A tax 9 levy may be imposed:

10 (a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by 11 a majority of at least three-fifths of the voters of the taxing
12 district voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax 13 submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the 14 proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve 15 month period, either at a special election or at the regular election
16 of such taxing district, at which election the number of voters voting 17 "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number 18 equal to forty percent of the total number of voters voting in such 19 taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number 20 of voters voting on the proposition does not exceed forty percent of 21 the total number of voters voting in such taxing district in the last 22 preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths 23 of the voters of the taxing district voting on the proposition to levy 24 when the number of voters voting on the proposition exceeds forty 25 percent of the number of voters voting in such taxing district in the 26 last preceding general election: Provided, That notwithstanding any 27 other provision of this Constitution, any proposition pursuant to this 28 subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools 29 may provide such support for a period of up to four years and any 30 proposition to levy an additional tax to support the construction, 31 modernization, or remodelling of school facilities may provide such 32 support for a period not exceeding six years; and

33 (b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue
34 general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of 35 making the required payments of principal and interest on general 36 obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the 37 replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at 38 least three-fifths of the voters of the taxing district voting on the 39 proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest

1 thereon by annual tax levies in excess of the limitation herein
2 provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than 3 twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided
4 by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election
5 the total number of voters voting on the proposition shall constitute 6 not less than forty percent of the total number of voters voting in 7 such taxing district at the last preceding general election: Provided,
8 That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its 9 governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district
10 issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest
11 thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax 12 limitation provided for herein, And provided further, That the 13 provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations
14 contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution((†

15 ~~(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of~~ 16 ~~preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered~~ 17 ~~so to do by a court of last resort)).~~

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause
19 notice of this constitutional amendment to be published at least four 20 times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal 21 newspaper in the state.
