

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO.2003-4617, by Representatives Chandler, Clements, Delvin, Conway, Hankins, Newhouse, Skinner, Sump, Condotta, Hinkle, Armstrong and Holmquist

WHEREAS, Apples have been the leading crop, in terms of revenue generation, in Washington State for twelve of the past thirteen years; and

WHEREAS, Pears grown in the Northwest account for 90 percent of the nation's fresh winter pears; and

WHEREAS, With roughly 100,000 tons produced annually, more sweet cherries are grown in Washington than any other state in the union; and

WHEREAS, The Washington tree fruit industry adds approximately 53,000 jobs to the state economy annually, which generates roughly 356 million dollars in wages for Washington workers; and

WHEREAS, Over a third of all apples grown in Washington are exported out of state, with a significant portion going to Mexico and Taiwan via the ports of Seattle and Tacoma; and

WHEREAS, Washington tree fruit is sold in all 50 states and more than 40 countries around the world; and

WHEREAS, Washington tree fruit producers have been at the forefront of developing the latest technologies in mating disruption and IPM techniques in their orchards to combat pests; and

WHEREAS, Washington tree fruit producers are outstanding representatives of the agricultural profession in the State of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives call upon the people of Washington to recognize the men and women in the state who have helped make Washington's tree fruit industry competitive in today's global economy; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to James M. Hazen, Executive Director of the Washington State Horticultural Association.

I hereby certify this to be a true and correct copy of Resolution 4617 adopted by the House of Representatives
