HB 1960-S2 by House Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Murray, Jarrett, Cooper, Dickerson and Hudgins)

Governing regional transportation. Revised for 1st Substitute: Governing regional transportation. (REVISED FOR ENGROSSED: Studying regional transportation governance.) Revised for 2nd Substitute: Reforming regional transportation governance.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 2ND SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that increased demands on transportation resources require increased efficiency and effectiveness in decision making within urbanized regions. Legislative enactments, public votes on local and state initiatives and referenda, and the number of agencies involved in transportation planning and delivery of services has significantly added to the complexity of transportation programs.

Finds that coordinated planning, investment in, and operation of transportation systems by the state and by local governments, can help ensure an efficient, effective transportation system that ensures mobility and addresses community needs. Improved planning, investment, and operation can also enhance local and state objectives for effective regional transportation strategies and effective coordination between land use and transportation.

Finds that addressing this need for better accountability and coordinated action regarding transportation and comprehensive planning necessitates an innovative approach. Improved integration among transportation programs, particularly in the state's largest metropolitan area is imperative, and will have significant benefit to the citizens of Washington.

Declares it is therefore the policy of the state of Washington to provide the authority for the citizens of the central Puget Sound counties to create a single regional government council, more directly accountable to the public, with adequate resources to develop and encourage implementation of a comprehensive transportation plan within the state's largest urbanized region.

Promoting Washington state agriculture.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that the from the heart of Washington program, developed by the Washington state department of agriculture with one-time federal grant moneys, is a valuable tool to convey important messages about Washington agriculture and to encourage Washington citizens to buy Washington-grown and Washington-processed food and agricultural products. With the exhaustion of the one-time federal grant funding, the legislature finds that the program would benefit from a new governance structure that will allow the necessary operational flexibility to enable the program to expand and to encourage private investment in the program, and that the continuance of the program as a private, nonprofit corporation is the best method to achieve these goals.

Simpson, Ruderman, Jarrett, Chase, Schual-Berke, Hudgins, Kessler, Woods, Moeller, Talcott and McDonald)

Requiring law enforcement agencies to adopt policies concerning domestic violence by sworn employees.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds it is appropriate to help reduce the incident rate of domestic violence by addressing the need for improved coordination and accountability among general authority Washington law enforcement agencies and general authority Washington peace officers when reports of domestic violence are made and the alleged perpetrator is a general authority Washington peace officer.

Finds that coordination and accountability will be improved if general authority Washington law enforcement agencies adopt policies that meet statewide minimum requirements for training, reporting, interagency cooperation, investigation, and collaboration with groups serving victims of domestic violence.

Declares an intent to provide maximum flexibility to general authority Washington law enforcement agencies, consistent with the purposes of this act, in their efforts to improve coordination and accountability when incidents of domestic violence committed or allegedly committed by general authority Washington peace officers are reported.

It is the intent that the penalties imposed against convicted domestic violence offenders under this act be used for established domestic violence prevention and prosecution programs.

Provides that all superior courts, and courts organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW, may impose a penalty assessment not to exceed one hundred dollars on any person convicted of a crime involving domestic violence. HB 3140 by Representatives Linville and Chandler; by request of Governor Locke

Creating a water court.

Finds that legal proceedings relating to water rights and instream flows impose a growing demand on the superior courts of the state.

Finds that the technical complexity and specialized legal issues raised by many water right disputes would be better managed by a water court with specialized expertise.

Declares an intent to establish a water court within the state court system that will have exclusive original jurisdiction for challenges relating to the adoption of instream flows and that will have appellate jurisdiction for water rights management and enforcement disputes.

Declares a further intent to provide the water court with exclusive original jurisdiction for future general water rights adjudications, if any. HB 3143 by Representatives Morris, Nixon, Hudgins, Sullivan and Chase

Making findings on renewable energy and energy efficiency.

Finds that: (1) Washington's utilities have been historical leaders in developing renewable hydroelectric energy and investing in energy efficiency. The state economy has greatly benefited from the strong foundation of low-cost hydroelectric generation as well as forward-looking investments in energy efficiency;

(2) Washington has a long tradition of energy policies that support energy efficiency and renewable energy development. These policies, which include financial incentives, have stimulated economic development, reduced operating costs for businesses, made industries more competitive, made homes more comfortable and efficient, reduced the energy burden of low-income households, and protected the environment;

(3) Washington utility green tariff programs have stimulated consumer interest and modest investments in renewable energy development;

(4) Uncertainty in the electric industry about the industry's long-term regulatory construct has shortened utility planning horizons and reduced the confidence of electric utilities to recover investments in energy conservation, system reliability, and new generation, including renewable energy resources;

(5) The 2003 northeast blackouts and western energy crisis of 2000-2001 demonstrated the vulnerability of an energy system reliant on transmission of electricity distant from load centers, increasingly strained water resources, and natural gas impacted by volatile market prices;

(6) Washington electric ratepayers will benefit from resource planning and acquisition that hedges against future fuel price risk by assisting utilities in developing a diverse portfolio of resources to meet customer needs; and

(7) Fuel diversity, economic, and environmental benefits from renewable energy and efficiency resources accrue to the public at large, and therefore all consumers and utilities should support consistent development of these resources to meet the state's electric demand and stabilize electricity prices.

Regarding the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Fair Housing Act Amendments guidelines for compliance in construction, rehabilitation, and substantial alteration of buildings using public funding from any source.

Finds that: (1) The Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Fair Housing Act Amendments guidelines were established to ensure adequate accommodations to people with disabilities.

(2) Various agencies have differing standards, procedures, and conditions for meeting fair housing guidelines, depending on factors as diverse as building type and funding sources.

(3) All of the guidelines include exemptions for certain building types and circumstances.

(4) It is in the interest of the people that their public moneys be used for its best and highest good.

(5) The state of Washington must not allow public moneys to be applied to projects that are nonaccommodation compliant, regardless of building type or circumstances.

Declares that eligibility for assistance from the department under chapter 43.185 RCW requires that any construction, rehabilitation, or substantial alteration of buildings using public moneys for any phase, part, or process of the construction, rehabilitation, or substantial alteration adhere to each and all of the designated guidelines as to the number, kind, and type of accessible units required by the guidelines, regardless of any exemptions or exceptions to the guidelines available by building type or circumstances.

Declares that any attempt by a publicly funded builder to circumvent the requirement in this act by separately permitting multiple two-unit dwellings on the same or contiguous properties, or in any other fashion, shall be grounds to have the funding revoked, in addition to any other remedies available by law.

Providing funds for an automated system for processing real estate excise taxes.

Declares an intent to provide funding for the development and implementation of an automated system for the electronic processing of the real estate excise tax.

Finds that due to the numerous users of the real estate excise tax information, and the many entities involved in its workflow, that county systems must be compatible with the automated system developed by the state department of revenue.

Finds that under current law an electronic real estate excise tax affidavit that is signed with a digital signature under chapter 19.34 RCW is a legally valid document and pursuant to RCW 5.46.010 electronic facsimiles, scanned signatures, and digital and other electronic conversions of written signatures satisfy the signature component of the affidavit requirement under this act.

SB 6672 by Senators Johnson, Prentice, Swecker, Haugen, Keiser, Benton and Shin

Authorizing a pilot project for high-occupancy toll lanes.

Recognizes that the Puget Sound region is faced with growing traffic congestion and has limited ability to expand freeway capacity due to financial, environmental, and physical constraints. Freeway high-occupancy vehicle lanes have been an effective means of providing transit, vanpools, and carpools with a fast trip on congested freeway corridors, but in many cases, these lanes are themselves getting crowded during the peak commute times, while some are being underused at off-peak times.

Declares an intent to maximize the effectiveness and efficiency of the freeway system. To evaluate methods to accomplish this, it is beneficial to evaluate alternative approaches to managing the use of freeway high-occupancy vehicle lanes, including pilot projects to determine and demonstrate the effectiveness and benefits of implementing high-occupancy toll lanes.

Acknowledges that state route 167 provides an ideal test of the high-occupancy toll lane concept because it is a congested corridor, it has underused capacity in the high-occupancy vehicle lane, and it has adequate right of way for improvements needed to test the concept.

Declares it is the intent of this act to direct that the department of transportation, as a pilot project, develop and operate a high-occupancy toll lane on state route 167 in King county and to conduct an evaluation of that project to determine impacts on freeway efficiency, effectiveness for transit, feasibility of financing improvements through tolls, and the impacts on freeway users.

SB 6674 by Senators Honeyford, Fraser and Rasmussen; by request of Governor Locke

Creating a water court.

Finds that legal proceedings relating to water rights and instream flows impose a growing demand on the superior courts of the state.

Finds that the technical complexity and specialized legal issues raised by many water right disputes would be better managed by a water court with specialized expertise.

Declares an intent to establish a water court within the state court system that will have exclusive original jurisdiction for challenges relating to the adoption of instream flows and that will have appellate jurisdiction for water rights management and enforcement disputes.

Declares a further intent to provide the water court with exclusive original jurisdiction for future general water rights adjudications, if any. It is not the intent of the legislature, by vesting the water court with exclusive original jurisdiction for future general water rights adjudications, to direct the state to file, or not, any such adjudications.

Declares that nothing in this act is intended to affect the jurisdiction of the superior court for any general adjudication of water rights proceeding, water management, or enforcement dispute, or challenge of a rule adopting instream flows if such action before the court was filed prior to the effective date of this act.

Provides that if Senate/House Bill Joint Resolution No. . . . (Z-1175.1/04) fails to pass the legislature or if the resulting referendum to the voters fails to receive a majority approval of the electorate, this act is null and void.

Recognizes the need to address listings that are made under the federal endangered species act (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq.) in a way that will make the most efficient uses of existing regional efforts.

Finds that the southwest Washington pilot program created by the legislature in 1998 for regional fish recovery in Clark, Cowlitz, Lewis, Skamania, and Wahkiakum counties is a successful model that should be used for other regional fish recovery programs.

Declares an intent to address statewide fish listings in a manner that takes advantage of all state and local efforts, and in a manner consistent with the lessons learned in the southwest Washington pilot program.
