SHB 2482 - H AMD 874 By Representative Kirby

Beginning on page 5, line 19, strike all of section 7 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) For a period of seven years from 3 4 receipt by the commissioner, any documents, materials, or other information in the possession or control of the commissioner that are 5 6 provided or obtained by the commissioner in an investigation of 7 suspected or actual fraudulent insurance acts under this chapter are 8 confidential by law, privileged, not subject to public disclosure under 9 chapters 42.17 and 42.56 RCW, not subject to subpoena, and not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action. 10 11 However, except for information under subsections (6) and (7) of this 12 section, information regarding a specific person may be disclosed to 13 that person, and only that person, upon request of the person. The 14 commissioner and prosecutors are authorized to use the documents, materials, or other information in the furtherance of (a) 15 any 16 regulatory or legal action brought as part of the commissioner's official duties, or (b) criminal investigation or prosecution. 17

18 (2) For a period of seven years from receipt by the commissioner, 19 neither the commissioner nor any person who receives documents, 20 materials, or other information while acting under the authority of 21 this chapter may be permitted or required to testify in any private 22 civil action concerning any confidential documents, materials, or 23 information subject to subsection (1) of this section.

(3) In order to assist in the performance of the commissioner'sduties under this chapter, the commissioner may:

(a) Share documents, materials, or other information, including confidential and privileged documents, material, or information subject to subsection (1) of this section with other state, federal, and international regulatory agencies, with the national association of insurance commissioners and its affiliates and subsidiaries, and with local, state, federal, and international law enforcement authorities, the national insurance crime bureau, and an insurer with respect to whom the suspected fraudulent claim may be perpetrated provided that the recipient agrees to maintain the confidentiality and privileged status of the document, material, or other information;

(b) Receive documents, materials, or information, including б 7 otherwise confidential and privileged documents, materials, or information from the national association of insurance commissioners 8 and its affiliates and subsidiaries, an insurer with respect to whom 9 the suspected fraudulent claim may be perpetrated, the national 10 insurance crime bureau, and from regulatory and law enforcement 11 officials of other foreign or domestic jurisdictions, and for a period 12 of seven years from receipt by the commissioner shall maintain as 13 confidential or privileged any document, material, or information 14 received with the notice or the understanding that it is confidential 15 16 or privileged under the laws of the jurisdiction that is the source of 17 the document, material, or information; and

(c) Enter into agreements governing sharing and use of informationconsistent with this section.

(4) No waiver of an existing privilege or claim of confidentiality in the documents, materials, or information may occur as a result of disclosure to the commissioner under this section or as a result of sharing documents, materials, or information as authorized in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Documents, materials, or other information that are in the possession of persons other than the commissioner that would otherwise not be confidential by law or privileged do not become confidential by law or privileged by providing the documents, materials, or other information to the commissioner.

(6) Information obtained by the commissioner under this chapter 30 31 revealing the identity of persons who are witnesses to or victims of 32 crime or who file complaints with insurers, investigative agencies, law enforcement agencies, or penology agencies is exempt from disclosure 33 under this chapter, or public inspection and copying under chapters 34 42.17 and 42.56 RCW, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, 35 physical safety, or property. If at or before the time the information 36 37 is provided to the commissioner under this chapter, and the complainant, victim, or witness indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, their desire governs.

3 (7) Documents, materials, or information obtained by the 4 commissioner, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law 5 enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy, are 6 exempt from public inspection and copying under chapters 42.17 and 7 42.56 RCW."
