ADOPTED 2/13/2006

1           On page 1, line 17, after "officer" insert "who is a resident

3           On page 2, line 4, after "established" insert "by the criminal
4 justice training commission"

6           On page 2, beginning on line 11, after "entity" strike all

EFFECT: Clarifies that the firearms qualification process is available only to retired officers who are residents of Washington. Clarifies that the required firearms qualification standards are those established by the Criminal Justice Training Commission for active law enforcement officers. Removes the requirement that the local law enforcement agency authorize private individuals and entities to provide firearms qualifications and instead allows the firearm qualification to be performed by individuals and entities who are certified to provide firearms training.
