SHB 3127 - H AMD 746 By Representative Nixon

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 2 following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 6 of this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

- (1) "Parent" means a parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody of a child.
- (2) "Sex education curriculum" means any audio or visual presentation, curriculum, handout, illustration, literature, poster, survey, test, or text to be used in the instruction of human sexuality.
- (3) "Instruction" means an assignment, demonstration, depiction, discussion, dissemination, display, explanation, posting, presentation, question, survey, or test.
- (4) "Human sexuality" means the anatomy and physiology of human reproduction and the characteristics or qualities that distinguish between human maleness and femaleness, including the physiological, psychological, and sociological processes experienced by an individual with regard to sexual development.
- (5) "Separate written notice" means a separate written advisory that instruction regarding human sexuality will be provided.
- (6) "Public school setting" includes any school-sponsored activity involving an employee, contractor, volunteer, or agent of a school district, regardless of its location.
- NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A school district shall not provide instruction relating to human sexuality to students in grades five through twelve, inclusive, without first providing notice to the students' parents as required by section 3 of this act.
  - (2) Instruction relating to human sexuality shall not be provided to, or in the presence of, students in kindergarten or grades one to four, inclusive, in a public school setting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) If a school district intends to provide or permit instruction in a public school setting to, or in the presence of, a student in grades five to twelve, inclusive, relating to human sexuality the school district shall provide separate written notice as described in section 3 of this act to the parent or guardian of the student no less than thirty days in advance of the instruction, and shall obtain the prior written approval of the student's parent or guardian consenting to the instruction.

(2) The notice required by this section shall be titled "Request for Parental Approval of Sexual Instruction." The title shall be printed at the top of the page, in boldface and no less than 16-point type, and shall be immediately followed by the text of sections 2 and 5 of this act in no less than 14-point type. The notice shall include all of the following information printed in no less than 12-point type: (a) The date, time, and location of the instruction; (b) the name of the teacher or administrator in charge of the instruction, and the name and affiliation of any presenters; (c) the telephone number at which the teacher or administrator in charge may be reached during regular school hours; (d) a reminder that parents and guardians may attend the class or assembly; and (e) a detailed and accurate description of the instruction to be provided, including, but not limited to, the scope and content of any activity, counseling, instruction, program, or testimonial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The school district shall keep its sex education curriculum in the following locations: a) The school district's office, out-of-sight of students; and (b) The school district's web site, if the school district maintains a web site.

(2) The sex education curriculum shall be available for inspection and copying by any parent, guardian, or agent of the parent or guardian of a student beginning at least thirty days in advance of, and for at least thirty days after, the instruction. The school district shall retain the original written approval required pursuant to section 3 of this act for at least ninety days and shall allow a parent, guardian, or agent of the parent or guardian to inspect and copy the written approval submitted by that parent or guardian upon request. A school district may charge a reasonable fee to cover costs associated with copying.

(3) The school district shall submit any sex education curriculum to the office of the superintendent of public instruction within thirty days of offering such instruction. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall maintain such materials submitted to it for no less than two calendar years, and shall make such materials available for public inspection and copying upon request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If a parent or guardian of a student does not provide written approval pursuant to section 3 of this act, the student shall be excused from the instruction, and offered other activities worth equal credit. No act or procedure may be required of a parent or guardian to excuse a student from that portion of the planned curriculum that concerns human sexuality. A student may not be academically penalized if his or her parent or guardian does not provide written approval pursuant to section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A school district found to be in violation of section 2, 3, 4, or 5 of this act by a court of competent jurisdiction is liable to the student or the parent or quardian of the student for damages in the amount of one hundred dollars per incident, for actions filed before December 31, 2008. Beginning January 1, 2008, the amount of damages shall be adjusted annually bv inflation factor based on the change Seattle-Tacoma-Bremerton consumer price index for all urban consumers. In any action brought under this section, the school district has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that it complied with the notice and written approval required by section 3 of this act. A prevailing plaintiff is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each 3127-S AMH NIXO MCLA 084 -3- Official Print - OPR
