Background:

At the request of a state employee, deductions may be made from the employees salary for payment for the following:

- credit union deductions;
- parking fee deductions;
- U.S. savings bond deductions;
- board, lodging or uniform deductions when furnished by the state, or deductions for academic tuition or fees or scholarship contributions payable to the employing institution;
- dues and other fees deductions;
- labor or employee organization dues;
- insurance contributions for payment of premiums under contracts authorized by the Health Care Authority;
- deductions to a bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association; and
- contributions to the Washington State Combined Fund Drive.

Deductions for labor or employee organization dues may only be made in the event that a payroll deduction is not provided under a collective bargaining agreement and 25 or more employees of a single agency, or a total of 100 or more employees of several agencies, have authorized such a deduction to the same labor or employee organization.

Summary of Substitute Bill:

In addition to labor or employee organization dues, an employee may authorize payroll deductions for contributions to one fund, committee, or subsidiary organization chosen and maintained by that labor or employee organization.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect January 1, 2007.

Testimony For: (State Government Operations & Accountability) The Washington Federation of State Employees supports the bill. This is an issue of fairness. Union members are the only group that are prevented from seeking additional deductions. The payroll system already does this so it should not add any additional costs.

Testimony For: (Appropriations) This allows voluntary deductions to political action committees and charities, or other funds maintained by labor organizations. Only a small number of employees are likely to use this, but we think that the costs in the fiscal note are overstated. The amendments would eliminate much of the cost concern.

Testimony Against: (State Government Operations & Accountability) None.
