
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 4416

State of Washington 59th Legislature 2006 Regular Session

By Representatives Quall, Chase and Talcott

Read first time 01/23/2006. Referred to Committee on Education.

1 WHEREAS, The 2005 legislature in House Concurrent Resolution No.
2 4408 authorized creation of a joint select committee on secondary 3 education to examine the basic structure of middle and high schools and 4 to recommend more effective organizational structures; and

5 WHEREAS, The joint select committee examined visions of secondary 6 education reform with the assistance of state and national experts; and

7 WHEREAS, The joint select committee also examined various models of 8 secondary education reform being implemented by high schools across the 9 state and being recommended by state and national organizations and 10 stakeholders; and

11 WHEREAS, The joint select committee was able to identify, on a 12 preliminary basis, several common themes pertaining to effective 13 secondary education reform; and

14 WHEREAS, Members of the joint select committee should have the 15 opportunity to provide findings and recommendations regarding effective 16 secondary reform based on their work to the K-12 advisory committee and 17 steering committee of Washington Learns so that these committees can 18 benefit from, consider, and possibly incorporate the work of the joint 19 select committee into their deliberations and final report;

1 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives of 2 the state of Washington, the Senate concurring, That the joint select 3 committee on secondary education created under House Concurrent
4 Resolution No. 4408 in 2005 summarize its findings and recommendations
5 and forward them to the advisory and steering committees of Washington
6 Learns by May 15, 2006.
