

SJM 8013 - DIGEST

Requests that the United States Congress restrict the federal income tax deduction for the losses of professional sports teams in order to provide that no losses incurred by professional sports team owners shall be used to offset gains or income from other business operations, or other sources of personal income.