ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL 2842

Passed Legislature - 2010 Regular Session

State of Washington 61st Legislature 2010 Regular Session

By House Financial Institutions & Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Parker, Kirby, and Kenney; by request of Insurance Commissioner)

READ FIRST TIME 01/26/10.

1 AN ACT Relating to insurer receiverships; amending RCW 42.56.400;
2 adding a new section to chapter 48.31 RCW; and adding a new section to 3 chapter 48.99 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.31 RCW
6 to read as follows:

7 (1) Documents, materials, or other information that the
8 commissioner obtains under this chapter in the commissioner's capacity
9 as a receiver as defined in RCW 48.99.010(12), are records under the 10 jurisdiction and control of the receivership court. These records are 11 confidential by law and privileged, are not subject to chapter 42.56 or 12 40.14 RCW, and are not subject to subpoena directed to the commissioner 13 or any person who received documents, materials, or other information
14 while acting under the authority of the commissioner. The commissioner 15 is authorized to use such documents, materials, or other information in 16 the furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as a part of 17 the commissioner's official duties. The confidentiality and privilege
18 created by this section and RCW 42.56.400(17) is not waived if
19 confidential and privileged information under this section is shared

1 with any person acting under the authority of the commissioner,
2 representatives of insurance guaranty associations that may have
3 statutory obligations as a result of the insolvency of an insurer, the 4 national association of insurance commissioners and its affiliates and
5 subsidiaries, regulatory and law enforcement officials of other states
6 and nations, the federal government, and international authorities.

7 (2) Neither the commissioner nor any person who received documents,
8 materials, or other information while acting under the authority of the 9 commissioner as receiver is required to testify in any private civil 10 action concerning any confidential and privileged documents, materials,
11 or information subject to subsection (1) of this section.

12 (3) Any person who can demonstrate a legal interest in the 13 receivership estate or a reasonable suspicion of negligence or 14 malfeasance by the commissioner related to an insurer receivership may 15 file a motion in the receivership matter to allow inspection of private 16 company information or documents otherwise not subject to disclosure 17 under subsection (1) of this section. The court shall conduct an in-18 camera review after notifying the commissioner and every party that 19 produced the information. The court may order the commissioner to 20 allow the petitioner to have access to the information provided the 21 petitioner maintains the confidentiality of the information. The 22 petitioner must not disclose the information to any other person,
23 except upon further order of the court. After conducting a hearing, 24 the court may order that the information can be disclosed publicly if 25 the court finds that there is a public interest in the disclosure of 26 the information and protection of the information from public 27 disclosure is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of 28 privacy, or any company's proprietary information, and the commissioner 29 has not demonstrated that disclosure would impair any vital
30 governmental function, or the receiver's ability to manage the estate.

31 (4) The confidentiality and privilege of documents, materials, or
32 other information obtained by the receiver set forth in subsections (1)
33 and (2) of this section does not apply to litigation to which the 34 insurer in receivership is a party. In such instances, discovery is 35 governed by the Washington rules of civil procedure.

36 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.99 RCW
37 to read as follows:

1 (1) Documents, materials, or other information that the
2 commissioner obtains under this chapter in the commissioner's capacity
3 as a receiver, are records under the jurisdiction and control of the 4 receivership court. These records are confidential by law and 5 privileged, are not subject to chapter 42.56 or 40.14 RCW, and are not 6 subject to subpoena directed to the commissioner or any person who 7 received documents, materials, or other information while acting under 8 the authority of the commissioner. The commissioner is authorized to 9 use such documents, materials, or other information in the furtherance 10 of any regulatory or legal action brought as a part of the 11 commissioner's official duties. The confidentiality and privilege
12 created by this section and RCW 42.56.400(17) is not waived if
13 confidential and privileged information under this section is shared
14 with any person acting under the authority of the commissioner,
15 representatives of insurance guaranty associations that may have 16 statutory obligations as a result of the insolvency of an insurer, the 17 national association of insurance commissioners and its affiliates and
18 subsidiaries, regulatory and law enforcement officials of other states
19 and nations, the federal government, and international authorities.

20 (2) Neither the commissioner nor any person who received documents,
21 materials, or other information while acting under the authority of the 22 commissioner as receiver is required to testify in any private civil 23 action concerning any confidential and privileged documents, materials,
24 or information subject to subsection (1) of this section.

25 (3) Any person who can demonstrate a legal interest in the
26 receivership estate or a reasonable suspicion of negligence or
27 malfeasance by the commissioner related to an insurer receivership may 28 file a motion in the receivership matter to allow inspection of private 29 company information or documents not subject to public disclosure under 30 subsection (1) of this section. The court shall conduct an in-camera
31 review after notifying the commissioner and every party that produced 32 the information. The court may order the commissioner to allow the 33 petitioner to have access to the information, provided the petitioner 34 maintains the confidentiality of the information. The petitioner must 35 not disclose the information to any other person, except upon further
36 order of the court. After conducting a hearing, the court may order 37 that the information can be disclosed if the court finds that there is 38 a public interest in the disclosure of the information and the

1 protection of the information from public disclosure is clearly 2 unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy, or any 3 company's proprietary information, and the commissioner has not 4 demonstrated that the disclosure would impair any vital governmental 5 function, the receivership estate, or the receiver's ability to manage 6 the estate.

7 (4) The confidentiality and privilege of documents, materials or
8 other information obtained by the receiver set forth in subsections (1)
9 and (2) of this section does not apply to litigation to which the 10 insurer in receivership is a party. In such instances, discovery is 11 governed by the Washington rules of civil procedure.

12 Sec. 3. RCW 42.56.400 and 2009 c 104 s 23 are each amended to read 13 as follows:

14 The following information relating to insurance and financial 15 institutions is exempt from disclosure under this chapter:
