

SB 5021 - DIGEST

Recognizes that electricity generated from renewable energy sources promotes sustainable energy alternatives and can help to replace the need for oil and natural gas. To ensure the development and implementation of these types of electricity generating projects, regulatory barriers should be removed or minimized where appropriate and possible.