

SB 5182 - DIGEST

Requires a permitting authority, when issuing an air operating permit to a sawmill that uses forest waste products as biomass fuel in a cogeneration facility producing electrical energy, to grant an offset credit reflecting the incremental emissions benefit that occurs because the forest waste products are not disposed of by open field or forest land burning if they would ordinarily be disposed of in that manner.