

SB 6018 - DIGEST

Directs the secretary of the department of transportation to work with the Washington State University extension's division of governmental studies and services to develop a statewide telework program to promote, assist, and provide research to accelerate the use of telework in Washington state.