By Committee on Judiciary

NOT CONSIDERED 05/25/2011

1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 2 following:

3 "Sec. 1. RCW 10.14.150 and 2005 c 196 s 1 are each amended to read
4 as follows:

5 (1) The district courts shall have original jurisdiction and 6 cognizance of any civil actions and proceedings brought under this 7 chapter, except the district court shall transfer such actions and 8 proceedings to the superior court when it is shown that (a) the 9 respondent to the petition is under eighteen years of age; (b) the 10 action involves title or possession of real property; (c) a superior 11 court has exercised or is exercising jurisdiction over a proceeding 12 involving the parties; or (d) the action would have the effect of 13 interfering with a respondent's care, control, or custody of the 14 respondent's minor child.

15 (2) Municipal courts may exercise jurisdiction and cognizance of 16 any civil actions and proceedings brought under this chapter by 17 adoption of local court rule, except the municipal court shall transfer 18 such actions and proceedings to the superior court when it is shown 19 that (a) the respondent to the petition is under eighteen years of age; 20 (b) the action involves title or possession of real property; (c) a 21 superior court has exercised or is exercising jurisdiction over a 22 proceeding involving the parties; or (d) the action would have the 23 effect of interfering with a respondent's care, control, or custody of 24 the respondent's minor child.

25 (3) Superior courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction to receive 26 transfer of antiharassment petitions in cases where a district or 27 municipal court judge makes findings of fact and conclusions of law 28 showing that meritorious reasons exist for the transfer. The municipal 29 and district courts shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of any 30 criminal actions brought under RCW 10.14.120 and 10.14.170.

1 Sec. 2. RCW 10.14.020 and 2001 c 260 s 2 are each amended to read
2 as follows:

3 Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in 4 this section apply throughout this chapter.

5 (1) "Unlawful harassment" means a knowing and willful course of 6 conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, 7 harasses, or is detrimental to such person, and which serves no 8 legitimate or lawful purpose. The course of conduct shall be such as 9 would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional 10 distress, and shall actually cause substantial emotional distress to 11 the petitioner, or, when the course of conduct would cause a reasonable 12 parent to fear for the well-being of their child.

13 (2) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a 14 series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a 15 continuity of purpose. "Course of conduct" includes, in addition to 16 any other form of communication, contact, or conduct, the sending of an 17 electronic communication, but does not include constitutionally 18 protected free speech. Constitutionally protected activity is not 19 included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

20 Sec. 3. RCW 10.14.080 and 2001 c 311 s 1 are each amended to read
21 as follows:

22 (1) Upon filing a petition for a civil antiharassment protection 23 order under this chapter, the petitioner may obtain an ex parte 24 temporary antiharassment protection order. An ex parte temporary 25 antiharassment protection order may be granted with or without notice 26 upon the filing of an affidavit which, to the satisfaction of the 27 court, shows reasonable proof of unlawful harassment of the petitioner 28 by the respondent and that great or irreparable harm will result to the 29 petitioner if the temporary antiharassment protection order is not 30 granted.

31 (2) An ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order shall be 32 effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days or twenty-four 33 days if the court has permitted service by publication under RCW 34 10.14.085. The ex parte order may be reissued. A full hearing, as 35 provided in this chapter, shall be set for not later than fourteen days 36 from the issuance of the temporary order or not later than twenty-four 37 days if service by publication is permitted. Except as provided in RCW

1 10.14.070 and 10.14.085, the respondent shall be personally served with 2 a copy of the ex parte order along with a copy of the petition and 3 notice of the date set for the hearing. The ex parte order and notice 4 of hearing shall include at a minimum the date and time of the hearing 5 set by the court to determine if the temporary order should be made 6 effective for one year or more, and notice that if the respondent
7 should fail to appear or otherwise not respond, an order for protection 8 will be issued against the respondent pursuant to the provisions of 9 this chapter, for a minimum of one year from the date of the hearing.
10 The notice shall also include a brief statement of the provisions of 11 the ex parte order and notify the respondent that a copy of the ex 12 parte order and notice of hearing has been filed with the clerk of the 13 court.

14 (3) At the hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the 15 evidence that unlawful harassment exists, a civil antiharassment 16 protection order shall issue prohibiting such unlawful harassment.

17 (4) An order issued under this chapter shall be effective for not 18 more than one year unless the court finds that the respondent is likely 19 to resume unlawful harassment of the petitioner when the order expires.
20 If so, the court may enter an order for a fixed time exceeding one year
21 or may enter a permanent antiharassment protection order. The court 22 shall not enter an order that is effective for more than one year if 23 the order restrains the respondent from contacting the respondent's 24 minor children. This limitation is not applicable to civil 25 antiharassment protection orders issued under chapter 26.09, 26.10, or 26 26.26 RCW. If the petitioner seeks relief for a period longer than one 27 year on behalf of the respondent's minor children, the court shall 28 advise the petitioner that the petitioner may apply for renewal of the 29 order as provided in this chapter or if appropriate may seek relief 30 pursuant to chapter 26.09 or 26.10 RCW.

31 (5) At any time within the three months before the expiration of 32 the order, the petitioner may apply for a renewal of the order by 33 filing a petition for renewal. The petition for renewal shall state 34 the reasons why the petitioner seeks to renew the protection order.
35 Upon receipt of the petition for renewal, the court shall order a 36 hearing which shall be not later than fourteen days from the date of 37 the order. Except as provided in RCW 10.14.085, personal service shall 38 be made upon the respondent not less than five days before the hearing.

1 If timely service cannot be made the court shall set a new hearing date 2 and shall either require additional attempts at obtaining personal 3 service or permit service by publication as provided by RCW 10.14.085.
4 If the court permits service by publication, the court shall set the 5 new hearing date not later than twenty-four days from the date of the 6 order. If the order expires because timely service cannot be made the 7 court shall grant an ex parte order of protection as provided in this 8 section. The court shall grant the petition for renewal unless the 9 respondent proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the 10 respondent will not resume harassment of the petitioner when the order 11 expires. The court may renew the protection order for another fixed 12 time period or may enter a permanent order as provided in subsection 13 (4) of this section.

14 (6) The court, in granting an ex parte temporary antiharassment 15 protection order or a civil antiharassment protection order, shall have 16 broad discretion to grant such relief as the court deems proper, 17 including an order:

18 (a) Restraining the respondent from making any attempts to contact 19 the petitioner;

20 (b) Restraining the respondent from making any attempts to keep the 21 petitioner under surveillance;

22 (c) Requiring the respondent to stay a stated distance from the 23 petitioner's residence and workplace; and 24 (d) Considering the provisions of RCW 9.41.800.

25 (7) The court in granting an ex parte temporary antiharassment
26 protection order or a civil antiharassment protection order, shall not 27 prohibit the respondent from exercising constitutionally protected free 28 speech. Nothing in this section prohibits the petitioner from 29 utilizing other civil or criminal remedies to restrain conduct or 30 communications not otherwise constitutionally protected.

31 (8) The court in granting an ex parte temporary antiharassment
32 protection order or a civil antiharassment protection order, shall not 33 prohibit the respondent from the use or enjoyment of real property to 34 which the respondent has a cognizable claim unless that order is issued 35 under chapter 26.09 RCW or under a separate action commenced with a 36 summons and complaint to determine title or possession of real 37 property.

1 (9) The court in granting an ex parte temporary antiharassment
2 protection order or a civil antiharassment protection order, shall not 3 limit the respondent's right to care, control, or custody of the 4 respondent's minor child, unless that order is issued under chapter 5 13.32A, 26.09, 26.10, or 26.26 RCW.

6 (10) A petitioner may not obtain an ex parte temporary 7 antiharassment protection order against a respondent if the petitioner 8 has previously obtained two such ex parte orders against the same 9 respondent but has failed to obtain the issuance of a civil 10 antiharassment protection order unless good cause for such failure can 11 be shown.

12 ~~((+8))~~ (11) The court order shall specify the date an order issued 13 pursuant to subsections (4) and (5) of this section expires if any.
14 The court order shall also state whether the court issued the 15 protection order following personal service or service by publication 16 and whether the court has approved service by publication of an order 17 issued under this section.

18 Sec. 4. RCW 9A.46.040 and 1985 c 288 s 4 are each amended to read
19 as follows:

20 (1) Because of the likelihood of repeated harassment directed at 21 those who have been victims of harassment in the past, when any 22 defendant charged with a crime involving harassment is released from 23 custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court 24 authorizing the release may require that the defendant:

25 (a) Stay away from the home, school, business, or place of 26 employment of the victim or victims of the alleged offense or other 27 location, as shall be specifically named by the court in the order;

28 (b) Refrain from contacting, intimidating, threatening, or 29 otherwise interfering with the victim or victims of the alleged offense 30 and such other persons, including but not limited to members of the 31 family or household of the victim, as shall be specifically named by 32 the court in the order.

33 (2) An intentional violation of a court order issued under this 34 section or an equivalent local ordinance is a misdemeanor. The written 35 order releasing the defendant shall contain the court's directives and 36 shall bear the legend: Violation of this order is a criminal offense

1 under chapter 9A.46 RCW. A certified copy of the order shall be 2 provided to the victim by the clerk of the court.

3 Sec. 5. RCW 9A.46.080 and 1985 c 288 s 8 are each amended to read
4 as follows:

5 The victim shall be informed by local law enforcement agencies or 6 the prosecuting attorney of the final disposition of the case in which 7 the victim is involved. If a defendant is found guilty of a crime of 8 harassment and a condition of the sentence restricts the defendant's 9 ability to have contact with the victim or witnesses, the condition 10 shall be recorded and a written certified copy of that order shall be 11 provided to the victim or witnesses by the clerk of the court. Willful 12 violation of a court order issued under this section or an equivalent 13 local ordinance is a misdemeanor. The written order shall contain the 14 court's directives and shall bear the legend: Violation of this order 15 is a criminal offense under chapter 9A.46 RCW and will subject a 16 violator to arrest.

17 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 10.14 RCW 18 to read as follows:

19 Before granting an order under this chapter, the court may consult 20 the judicial information system, if available, to determine criminal 21 history or the pendency of other proceedings involving the parties."
