SENATE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS

Staff: Sam Thompson (786-7413)

Background: The Washington State Historical Society (WSHS) administers the Heritage Capital Projects Fund, with the advice of representatives of the office of the Secretary of State, the Eastern Washington State Historical Society, and the Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation. The fund provides grants to local governments and other entities for capital projects interpreting and preserving state history and heritage. WSHS submits a prioritized project funding list to the Governor and Legislature in its biennial budget request. Maximum total state funding for projects on the list is $10 million, and the maximum percentage of state funding for a project is 33 percent of the total cost of the project.

WSHS partners with Washington State University (WSU) and other agencies to manage the Center for Columbia River History on the Fort Vancouver National Historic Reserve.

The State Capitol Museum in Olympia houses and interprets WSHS collections.

Summary of Bill: The bill as referred to committee not considered.

Summary of Bill (Proposed Substitute): In addition to current entities advising WSHS in establishing a prioritized list of projects to be funded by grants, an advisory panel includes leaders in heritage, architecture, and finance, and a representative of the Department of Enterprise Services. percent of funds appropriated by the Legislature to the grant program may be retained and used by WSHS for administrative costs.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: This legislation makes changes necessary to match current practices. The Center for Columbia River History no longer exists. WSHS follows Office of Financial Management standards in retaining up to 3 percent of grant program funds for administrative costs. The proposed 10 percent limit would allow for increases that may be authorized over time.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Senator Darneille, prime sponsor; Jennifer Kilmer, WSHS.
