SENATE BILL 5810

State of Washington

63rd Legislature

2013 Regular Session

By Senators Darneille, Carrell, and Shin; by request of Department of Corrections

Read first time 02/18/13. Referred to Committee on Human Services & Corrections.

1 AN ACT Relating to exemption of information contained in the 2 department of corrections' security threat group database; and adding 3 a new section to chapter 72.09 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW
6 to read as follows:

7 (1) The special investigations services unit of the department may 8 collect, evaluate, collate, and analyze data and specific investigative 9 information concerning the existence, structure, activities, and 10 operations of security threat groups, drugs, and violence within 11 department facilities and the participants involved therein under the 12 jurisdiction of the department.

13 (2) Security threat group data must be located in a centralized 14 database of the department and must be used to maintain the safety and 15 security of offenders, staff, facilities, and the public. The data 16 compiled may aid in addressing violence reduction, illegal activities, 17 and identification of offender separation or protection needs, and may 18 be used to assist law enforcement agencies and prosecutors in 19 developing evidence for purposes of criminal prosecution upon request.

1           (3) The security threat group database and all contents in the 2 database are confidential and exempt from public disclosure under 3 chapter 42.56 RCW.
