

HB 1005 - DIGEST

(SUBSTITUTED FOR - SEE 3RD SUB)

Restructures ethics functions under the public disclosure commission to unify processes and functions and cut costs.

Increases disclosure regarding the influence of money in politics by requiring electronic filing by lobbyists.

Transfers certain powers, duties, and functions of the legislative ethics board and the executive ethics board to the public disclosure commission.

Repeals the legislative ethics board and the executive ethics board.

Creates the public disclosure electronic filing account.