

HB 1337 - DIGEST

Prohibits the fish and wildlife commission from classifying, or maintaining a classification for, the gray wolf as endangered or threatened in any area of the state where a similar listing is not simultaneously in effect for the same species under the federal endangered species act.