

HB 2287 - DIGEST

Promotes ready access to legal assistance and counsel for all citizens of the state and encourages programs and plans that promote arrangements between members of the public as consumers of legal services and lawyers and other trained professionals who provide legal assistance and counsel to the general public for any type of legal needs.