

SB 6320 - DIGEST

Requires any hours scheduled by a school district for noninstructional purposes during the last five school days for students who are graduating from high school to count toward the instructional hours requirement.