EFFECT: Allows the governing authority of a city, rather than a duly authorized administrative official or committee, to approve an application for a conditional certificate of acceptance of tax expenditure under certain conditions.

Removes a provision that allowed an applicant to appeal the decision of a city to deny a conditional certificate of tax expenditure to the city governing body and adds a provision allowing an applicant, upon a decision by a city to deny a conditional certificate of tax expenditure, to appeal the decision in superior court under the Administrative Procedures Act.
