1 Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the 2 following:

3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is 4 important to achieve equal opportunity for all of its citizens. The 5 legislature finds that women face unique problems and needs. For 6 economic, social, and historical reasons, a disproportionate number 7 of women find themselves disadvantaged or isolated from the benefits
8 of equal opportunity. It is the purpose of this chapter to improve 9 the well-being of women, by enabling them to participate fully in all 10 fields of endeavor, assisting them in obtaining governmental 11 services, and promoting equal compensation and fairness in employment 12 for women. The legislature also believes that addressing women's 13 issues and improving the well-being of women will have a positive 14 impact on larger societal issues. The legislature further finds that 15 the development of public policy and the efficient delivery of 16 governmental services to meet the needs of women can be improved by 17 establishing a focal point in state government for the interests of 18 women. Therefore, the legislature deems it necessary to establish in 19 statute the Washington state women's commission to further these 20 purposes. The commission shall address issues relevant to the 21 problems and needs of women, such as domestic violence, child care, 22 child support, sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, equal 23 compensation and job pathways opportunities in employment, and the 24 specific needs of women of color.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state women's commission is 26 established in the office of the governor. The commission shall be 27 administered by an executive director, who shall be appointed by, and 28 serve at the pleasure of, the governor. The governor shall set the 29 salary of the executive director. The executive director shall employ 30 the staff of the commission.

1 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The Washington state women's 2 commission shall consist of nine members appointed by the governor 3 with the advice and consent of the senate.

4 (2) The governor shall consider nominations for membership based 5 upon maintaining a balanced and diverse distribution of ethnic, 6 geographic, gender, sexual orientation, age, socioeconomic status, 7 and occupational representation, where practicable.

8 (3) All commission members shall serve at the pleasure of the 9 governor, but in no case may any member serve more than three years 10 without formal reappointment by the governor. All legislative 11 advisory members shall serve for a two-year term and the position of 12 any legislative advisory member shall be deemed vacated whenever such 13 member ceases to be a member of the house from which the member was 14 appointed. Of the persons initially appointed by the governor to the 15 commission, three shall be appointed to serve one year, three to 16 serve two years, and three to serve three years. Upon expiration of 17 such terms, subsequent appointments shall be for three years. Any 18 vacancies occurring in the membership of the commission shall be 19 filled for the remainder of the unexpired term in the same manner as 20 the original appointments.

21 (4) Two members of the senate, one from each of the two major 22 political parties, appointed by the president of the senate, and two 23 members of the house of representatives, one from each of the two 24 major political parties, appointed by the speaker of the house of 25 representatives, shall serve as advisory members.

26 (5)(a) Nonlegislative members shall be reimbursed for expenses
27 incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW
28 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

29 (b) Legislative members shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred 30 in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 44.04.120.

31 (6) A simple majority of the commission's membership constitutes 32 a quorum for the purpose of conducting business.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The director of the Washington state 34 women's commission shall:

35 (1) Monitor state legislation and advocate for legislation
36 affecting women;

37 (2) Work with state agencies to assess programs and policies that 38 affect women;

1 (3) Coordinate with the minority commissions and human rights 2 commission to address issues of mutual concern; and

3 (4) Work as a liaison between the public and private sector to 4 eliminate barriers to women's economic equity.

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The Washington state women's 6 commission shall have the following duties:

7 (a) Actively recruit and maintain a list of names of qualified 8 women to fill vacancies on various boards and commissions;

9 (b) Provide a clearinghouse for information regarding both state 10 and federal legislation as it relates to the purpose of this chapter;

11 (c) Identify and define specific needs of women of color and 12 provide recommendations for addressing those needs in the biennial 13 report to the legislature and governor under (j) of this subsection;

14 (d) Consult with state agencies regarding the effect of agency 15 policies, procedures, practices, laws, and administrative rules on 16 the unique problems and needs of women. The commission shall also 17 advise such state agencies on the development and implementation of 18 comprehensive and coordinated policies, plans, and programs focusing 19 on those problems and needs;

20 (e) Provide resource and referral information to agencies and the 21 public. The commission may gather data and disseminate information to 22 the public in order to implement the purposes of this chapter;

23 (f) Hold public hearings to gather input on issues related to the 24 unique problems and needs of women. The commission must include in 25 the biennial report submitted under (j) of this subsection the input 26 received and recommendations for addressing the problems and needs 27 discussed at the public hearings;

28 (g) Advocate for removal of legal and social barriers for women;

29 (h) Review best practices for sexual harassment policies and 30 training and provide recommendations to state agencies as they update 31 their sexual harassment policies. The commission shall also maintain 32 a file of sexual harassment policies that meet high quality standards 33 and make these files available for agency use;

34 (i) Review and make recommendations to the legislature on 35 strategies to increase the number of women serving on for-profit 36 corporate boards with gross income of five million dollars or more; 37 and

38 (j) Submit a report to the appropriate committees of the 39 legislature and the governor every two years detailing the

1 commission's activities. The report submitted must be in electronic 2 format pursuant to RCW 43.01.036.

3 (2) State agencies must provide appropriate and reasonable 4 assistance to the commission as needed, including gathering data and 5 information, in order for the commission to carry out the purpose of 6 this chapter.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The Washington state women's commission
8 shall have the following powers:

9 (1) Receive gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private 10 sources that are made for the use or benefit of the commission and to 11 expend the same or any income therefrom according to their terms and 12 the purpose of this chapter. The commission's executive director 13 shall make a report of such funds received from private sources to 14 the office of financial management on a regular basis. Such funds 15 received from private sources shall not be applied to reduce or 16 substitute for the commission's budget as appropriated by the 17 legislature, but shall be applied and expended toward projects and 18 functions authorized by this chapter that were not funded by the 19 legislature.

20 (2) In carrying out its duties, the commission may establish such 21 relationships with public and private institutions, local 22 governments, private industry, community organizations, and other 23 segments of the general public as may be needed to promote equal 24 opportunity for women in government, education, economic security, 25 employment, and services.

26 (3) The commission may adopt rules and regulations pursuant to 27 chapter 34.05 RCW as shall be necessary to implement the purpose of 28 this chapter.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The Washington state women's commission
30 must provide staffing support to the interagency committee of state 31 employed women, a volunteer organization that aims to better the 32 lives of state employees by advising the governor and agencies on 33 policies that affect state employed women.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. On August 26, 1920, with the action of the 35 Tennessee legislature, the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States 36 Constitution was ratified, establishing the right to vote for most 37 American women. However, this right for some women occurred later:

1 Native Americans generally by 1924; many Asians during the mid-
2 twentieth century; and many others following enactment of voting 3 rights legislation during the 1960s.

4 The introduction, passage, and ratification of the Nineteenth 5 Amendment were the result of decades of work and struggle by women's 6 voting rights advocates throughout the United States, with people
7 from Washington state providing significant leadership.

8 In 1854, six years after the landmark women's rights convention
9 in Seneca Falls, New York, the Washington territorial legislature
10 initially considered enacting women's right to vote. Susan B. Anthony 11 visited Washington territory in 1871 and addressed the Washington 12 territorial legislature, the first woman in the country to address a 13 state legislative body in session. This spurred the creation of many 14 women's right to vote associations in Washington and other states.

15 State women's right to vote legislation eventually passed the 16 Washington territorial legislature twice, but each time was found 17 unconstitutional by the territorial supreme court. With the 1910 18 approval of a state constitutional amendment by the male voters of 19 the state, Washington became the first state in the twentieth 20 century, and the fifth state overall, to enact women's right to vote 21 at the state level.

22 In 2009, the state of Washington posthumously awarded its highest 23 honor, the medal of merit, to the two key leaders of the Washington
24 women's right to vote movement, Emma Smith DeVoe and May Arkwright 25 Hutton.

26 The path to women's suffrage was blazed by western states.
27 Washington's action (1910) followed Wyoming (1890), Colorado (1893), 28 Utah (1870), and Idaho (1896). These successes were immediately 29 followed by California (1911) and Oregon (1912), in establishing 30 women's right to vote.

31 Washington was a major leader in the movement for nationwide 32 women's right to vote. Washington was the first state in the 33 twentieth century to fully enfranchise women and inspired the 34 nationwide campaign that soon brought success in many western states
35 and the territory of Alaska, culminating in the Nineteenth Amendment
36 to the United States Constitution providing for American women 37 throughout the country to vote.

38 In 2010, the Washington women's history consortium provided 39 leadership for statewide commemoration of the centennial of

1 Washington state women's right to vote, sponsoring and coordinating a 2 wide range of statewide activities.

3 The centennial of the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the 4 United States Constitution, in 2020, offers still greater 5 opportunities for Washingtonians to commemorate and educate 6 themselves and future generations about the importance of voting and 7 civic engagement. Washingtonians and the many visitors to Washington 8 will benefit from learning about and becoming inspired by the 9 historic efforts of the women's right to vote movement in Washington 10 and throughout the nation and the subsequent impacts on life in 11 Washington and the United States.

12 Therefore, the legislature finds it beneficial to begin the 13 process of preparing for statewide commemoration from 2018 through 14 2020, of the centennial of the processes of congressional passage of 15 and states' legislative ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment to 16 the United States Constitution, which established the right to vote
17 for American women.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The women's commission must, subject 19 to the availability of amounts appropriated for this specific 20 purpose, work with the Washington women's history consortium to:

21 (a) Provide leadership for statewide commemoration from 2018
22 through 2020 of the centennial pertaining to the passage by congress 23 of the Nineteenth Amendment and its subsequent ratification by three-24 fourths of the state legislatures in August 1920;

25 (b) Immediately begin preparations for this statewide 26 commemoration, to include but not be limited to:

27 (i) Consulting with a wide variety of organizations, 28 institutions, public agencies, educational agencies and institutions, 29 tourism organizations, and the general public about the content and 30 conduct of this statewide commemoration;

31 (ii) Developing and encouraging others to develop a broad range
32 of widely available educational opportunities for Washingtonians 33 generally, students, and visitors, including significant online 34 educational resources, to:

35 (A) Learn about the importance of voting in the context of women 36 gaining the right to vote;

37 (B) Consider the subsequent long-term impacts of women gaining 38 the right to vote;

1 (C) Learn about the active leadership role of Washingtonians in 2 achieving the nationwide right to vote for women;

3 (D) Honor the countless participants in the women's suffrage 4 movement; and

5 (E) Inspire future generations to treasure their right to vote;

6 (iii) Planning, coordinating, and publicizing events and 7 informational materials for Washingtonians and visitors throughout 8 the state commemorating this centennial;

9 (c) Create and distribute a portfolio of public humanities 10 programs, and encourage others to do so, to engage Washingtonians and 11 visitors with important aspects of the women's right to vote 12 movement;

13 (d) Encourage private organizations, schools, institutions of 14 higher education, public agencies, and local governments to organize 15 and participate in activities commemorating the centennial of the 16 Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution;

17 (e) Coordinate with the regional and national organizations and 18 agencies with respect to their commemorative work;

19 (f) Coordinate with the national collaborative for women's 20 history sites by contributing a Washington component to the 21 development of a nationwide votes for women trail; and

22 (g) Administer a grant program for public agencies, educational 23 institutions, and organizations exempt from taxation under Title 26
24 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code to assist 25 with their commemoration activities.

26 (2) The women's commission has the following powers and may 27 exercise them as necessary to carry out its duties under subsection 28 (1) of this section:

29 (a) Appoint task forces and advisory committees;

30 (b) Work with staff appointed by the Washington state historical 31 society; and

32 (c) Enter into agreements or contracts.

33 (3) Legislative members serving on any task force or advisory 34 committee created under this section must be reimbursed for travel 35 expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120.

36 (4) Representatives of state and local governments serving on any 37 task force or advisory committee created under this section must be 38 reimbursed pursuant to the reimbursement policies of their respective 39 entity.

1 (5) Nonlegislative members serving on any task force or advisory 2 committee created under this section are not entitled to be 3 reimbursed for travel expenses if they are elected officials or are 4 participating on behalf of an employer, governmental entity, or other 5 organization. Any reimbursement for other nonlegislative members is 6 subject to chapter 43.03 RCW.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 7 of this act
8 constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 8 and 9 of this act expires July 10 1, 2021."

11 On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "commission;" strike the 12 remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 43 13 RCW; creating new sections; and providing an expiration date."

EFFECT: (1) Removes the requirement that the first biennial report to the legislature include an analysis of pay inequity based on gender among individuals employed in the office of the governor and employees included in the Washington management service.

(2) Requires the Commission review and make recommendations to the legislature on strategies to increase the number of women serving on for-profit corporate boards with gross income of five million dollars or more.

(3) Clarifies that the Commission's executive director must report gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources to the Office of Financial Management on a regular basis.

(4) Requires that the Women's Commission work with the Washington Women's History Consortium to prepare for a 2020 statewide commemoration of women's suffrage, subject to appropriation.
