C 22 L 18
Synopsis as Enacted

Brief Description: Making technical corrections and removing obsolete language from the Revised Code of Washington pursuant to RCW 1.08.025.

Sponsors: Representatives Goodman, Rodne, Sawyer, Haler and Appleton; by request of Statute Law Committee.

House Committee on Judiciary
Senate Committee on Law & Justice

Background:

Duties of the Statute Law Committee.

The primary responsibilities of the Statute Law Committee (Committee) and the Code Reviser (Reviser) are to periodically codify, index, and publish the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) and to revise, correct, and harmonize the statutes by means of administrative or suggested legislative action. The Committee, or the Reviser with the approval of the Committee, must periodically make written recommendations to the Legislature concerning deficiencies, conflicts, or obsolete provisions in the RCW.

Summary:

Certain obsolete and expired provisions are removed from the Revised Code of Washington (RCW). Other corrections are made to:

- conform the start and end dates of daylight savings time to the dates in federal law;
- address conflicting changes to the same statutory language;
- correct errors to cross referenced sections of the RCW;
- merge multiple amendments to an RCW section that originated from two separate 2010 bills each enacted without reference to the other; and
- resolve conflicting expiration dates.
