SENATE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Staff: Alicia Kinne-Clawson (786-7407)

Background: There are 7.6 million people employed in outdoor recreation related jobs in the United States. The outdoor recreation industry generates over $887 billion in annual consumer spending each year. Nearly half of all American's over the age of six participated in outdoor recreation in 2016. Outdoor recreation related jobs include gear and product sales and development; recreation guides, educators, and instructors; and, local, state, and national park service roles.

To meet the needs of the outdoor recreation industry, Wenatchee Valley College offers an associates degree in outdoor recreation management, while Central Washington University offers a degree in recreation and tourism. Similarly, Western Washington University has a bachelor's degree program in recreation and Eastern Washington University offers a bachelor's degree in outdoor recreation.

Summary of Bill: A taskforce on outdoor recreation talent pipeline gaps is established to identify recommendations for degrees and certificates to meet the needs of the outdoor recreation industry in the state. The task force consists of:

- one representative from the state board for community and technical colleges;
- one representative who has expertise in curriculum development, from each of the public baccalaureate institutions;
- one representative from the council of presidents;
- one representative from the student achievement council; and
- four representatives from the public who have expertise in different sectors of the outdoor recreation industry within the state.

The task force must report to the Legislature and the institutions of higher education on its goals and recommendations by December 17, 2018.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Not requested.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.

Staff Summary of Public Testimony: PRO: The contribution to the Washington State economy from outdoor recreation is over $21 billion and 199,000 jobs. We should begin to elevate outdoor recreation as an important industry. The State Board for Community and Technical Colleges has many workforce programs—many that support the needs of the outdoor recreation industry. It is challenging to identify the skills necessary to support the outdoor recreation industry.

Persons Testifying: PRO: Senator Kevin Ranker, Prime Sponsor; Katherine Mahoney, State Board for Community and Technical Colleges; Paul Francis, Council of Presidents.

Persons Signed In To Testify But Not Testifying: No one.
