6 read as follows:

7 (1) When the death of a person is caused by the wrongful act,
8 neglect, or default of another person, his or her personal

10 person causing the death((+ and although)) for the economic and 11 noneconomic damages sustained by the beneficiaries listed in RCW 12 4.20.020 as a result of the decedent's death, in such amounts as 13 determined by a jury to be just under all the circumstances of the 14 case.

15 (2) This section applies regardless of whether or not the death 16 ((shall have been)) was caused under such circumstances as amount, in 17 law, to a felony.

18 Sec. 2. RCW 4.20.020 and 2011 c 336 s 90 are each amended to

2 of the (~~wife, husband~~) spouse, state registered domestic partner, 3 child or children, including stepchildren, of the person whose death
4 shall have been so caused. If there (~~be~~) is no (~~wife, husband~~) 5 spouse, state registered domestic partner, or such child or children, 6 such action may be maintained for the benefit of the parents(~~(~~
7 ~~sisters,~~) or (~~brothers, who may be dependent upon the deceased~~
8 ~~person for support, and who are resident within the United States at~~ 9 ~~the time of his or her death~~) siblings of the deceased.

10 In every such action the jury may give such damages as, under all 11 circumstances of the case, may to them seem just.

12 Sec. 3. RCW 4.20.046 and 2008 c 6 s 409 are each amended to read
13 as follows:

14 (1) All causes of action by a person or persons against another 15 person or persons shall survive to the personal representatives of 16 the former and against the personal representatives of the latter, 17 whether such actions arise on contract or otherwise, and whether or 18 not such actions would have survived at the common law or prior to 19 the date of enactment of this section(~~(~~PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)~~).~~

20 (2) In addition to recovering economic losses, the personal 21 representative (~~shall only be~~) is entitled to recover on behalf of 22 those beneficiaries identified under RCW 4.20.020 any noneconomic 23 damages for pain and suffering, anxiety, emotional distress, or 26 in such amounts as determined by a jury to be just under all the 27 circumstances of the case. Damages under this section are recoverable 28 regardless of whether or not the death was occasioned by the injury 29 that is the basis for the action.

30 (3) The liability of property of spouses or domestic partners 31 held by them as community property and subject to execution in 32 satisfaction of a claim enforceable against such property so held 33 shall not be affected by the death of either or both spouses or 34 either or both domestic partners; and a cause of action shall remain 35 an asset as though both claiming spouses or both claiming domestic 36 partners continued to live despite the death of either or both 37 claiming spouses or both claiming domestic partners.

38 ((+2)) (4) Where death or an injury to person or property,
39 resulting from a wrongful act, neglect or default, occurs

1 simultaneously with or after the death of a person who would have 2 been liable therefor if his or her death had not occurred
3 simultaneously with such death or injury or had not intervened
4 between the wrongful act, neglect or default and the resulting death
5 or injury, an action to recover damages for such death or injury may 6 be maintained against the personal representative of such person.

7 Sec. 4. RCW 4.20.060 and 2007 c 156 s 30 are each amended to 8 read as follows:

9 (1) No action for a personal injury to any person occasioning
10 death shall abate, nor shall such right of action ((determine)) 11 terminate, by reason of such death, if such person has a surviving 12 spouse, state registered domestic partner, or child living, including 13 stepchildren, or if leaving no surviving spouse, state registered 14 domestic partner, or ((such)) children, ((if there is dependent upon

15 the deceased for support and resident within the United States at the 16 time of decedent's death,)) the person has surviving parents(( 17 sisters,)) or ((brothers; but such action may be prosecuted, or 18 commenced and prosecuted, by the executor or administrator))

19 siblings.

20 (2) An action under this section shall be brought by the personal 21 representative of the deceased, in favor of ((such)) the surviving 22 spouse or state registered domestic partner, or in favor of the 23 surviving spouse or state registered domestic partner and ((such)) 24 children, or if no surviving spouse or state registered domestic 25 partner, in favor of ((such)) the child or children, or if no
26 surviving spouse, state registered domestic partner, or ((such)) a 27 child or children, then in favor of the decedent's parents((

28 sisters,)) or ((brothers who may be dependent upon such person for

29 support, and resident in the United States at the time of decedent's 30 death)) siblings.

31 (3) In addition to recovering the decedent's economic losses
32 under this section, the persons listed in subsection (1) of this 33 section are entitled to recover any noneconomic damages personal to 34 the decedent including, but not limited to, damages for the 35 decedent's pain and suffering, anxiety, emotional distress, loss of 36 life itself, loss of enjoyment of life, shortened life expectancy, or 37 humiliation, in such amounts as determined by a jury to be just under 38 all the circumstances of the case.

1 Sec. 5. RCW 4.24.010 and 1998 c 237 s 2 are each amended to read
2 as follows:

3 (1) A ((mother or father, or both, who has regularly contributed 4 to the support of his or her minor child, and the mother or father, 5 or both, of a child on whom either, or both, are dependent for 6 support)) parent or legal guardian may maintain or join as a party an 7 action as plaintiff for the injury or death of the child((-)) if the 8 parent or legal guardian has had significant involvement in the 9 child's life including, but not limited to, either giving or 10 receiving emotional, psychological, or financial support to or from 11 the child. For purposes of this section, "significant involvement" 12 means demonstrated support of an emotional, psychological, or 13 financial nature within the parent-child relationship, at or 14 reasonably near the time of death, or at or reasonably near the time 15 of the incident causing death.

16 (2) In addition to recovering damages for the child's health care 17 expenses, loss of the child's services, loss of the child's financial 18 support, and other economic losses, damages may be also recovered 19 under this section for the loss of love and companionship of the 20 child, loss of the child's emotional support, and for injury to or 21 destruction of the parent-child relationship, in such amounts as 22 determined by a jury to be just under all the circumstances of the 23 case.

24 (3) An action may be maintained under this section regardless of 25 whether or not the child has attained the age of majority if the 26 child has no spouse, state registered domestic partner, or children.

27 (4) Each parent is entitled to recover for his or her own loss 28 separately from the other parent regardless of marital status, even 29 though this section creates only one cause of action(, but if the 30 parents of the child are not married, are separated, or not married 31 to each other damages may be awarded to each plaintiff separately, as 32 the trier of fact finds just and equitable)).

33 (5) If one parent brings an action under this section and the 34 other parent is not named as a plaintiff, notice of the institution
35 of the suit, together with a copy of the complaint, shall be served 36 upon the other parent: PROVIDED, That notice shall be required only 37 if parentage has been duly established.

38 Such notice shall be in compliance with the statutory 39 requirements for a summons. Such notice shall state that the other 40 parent must join as a party to the suit within twenty days or the

1 right to recover damages under this section shall be barred. Failure
2 of the other parent to timely appear shall bar such parent's action 3 to recover any part of an award made to the party instituting the 4 suit.

5 ~~((In such an action, in addition to damages for medical,
6 hospital, medication expenses, and loss of services and support, 7 damages may be recovered for the loss of love and companionship of 8 the child and for injury to or destruction of the parent-child 9 relationship in such amount as, under all the circumstances of the 10 case, may be just.))~~

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is remedial and retroactive and 12 applies to all claims that are not time barred, as well as any claims 13 pending in any court on the effective date of this section.
