1 AN ACT Relating to recognition of indigenous peoples' day;
2 amending RCW 1.16.050; and creating a new section.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state
5 recognizes the twelfth of October as Columbus Day to commemorate 6 Christopher Columbus' arrival in the Americas in the year 1492.
7 Columbus Day is also celebrated as a federal holiday. The observance
8 of the official beginning of European colonization on this continent
9 has overlooked the tragic historical legacy of the European encounter 10 with indigenous peoples, including genocide, slavery, and the 11 confiscation of lands and resources. Columbus himself is known to 12 have participated in the theft, enslavement, and murder of the 13 indigenous people he encountered.

14 The legislature further finds that despite the conflict and 15 tragedy brought along with European colonization, the indigenous 16 people have maintained their identity and culture and have 17 contributed much to the progress and development of the nation. In 18 particular, Native American tribes have made invaluable contributions
19 to the diversity, culture, and economy of the state of Washington.

20 The legislature further finds that the recognition of Columbus
21 Day diminishes the crimes committed against indigenous people during

1 the colonial period and the continued struggle of Native people to 2 survive in the legacy of colonization. The legislature therefore 3 resolves to honor the sacrifice, perseverance, and value of the 4 Native American people as the original and enduring people of this 5 continent by renaming Columbus Day as indigenous peoples' day.

6 Sec. 2. RCW 1.16.050 and 2016 c 9 s 2 are each amended to read
7 as follows:

14 and celebrated as the anniversary of the births of Abraham Lincoln
15 and George Washington;

32 per calendar year in addition to those specified in this section.
33 Each employee of the state or its political subdivisions may select 34 the day on which the employee desires to take the additional holiday

36 pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate
37 personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance

12 desires to take the two unpaid holidays after consultation with the 16 employee prefers to take the two unpaid holidays on specific days for 17 a reason of faith or conscience, or an organized activity conducted 18 under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or religious 19 organization, the employer must allow the employee to do so unless 20 the employee's absence would impose an undue hardship on the employer

21 or the employee is necessary to maintain public safety. Undue 22 hardship shall have the meaning established in rule by the office of 23 financial management under RCW 43.41.109.

24 (4) If any of the state legal holidays specified in this section 25 are also federal legal holidays but observed on different dates, only 26 the state legal holidays are recognized as a paid legal holiday for 27 employees of the state and its political subdivisions. However, for 28 port districts and the law enforcement and public transit employees 29 of municipal corporations, either the federal or the state legal 30 holiday is recognized as a paid legal holiday, but in no case may 31 both holidays be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees.

32 (5) Whenever any state legal holiday:

33 (a) Other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday 34 is the legal holiday; or

35 (b) Falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday is the legal 36 holiday.

37 (6) Nothing in this section may be construed to have the effect 38 of adding or deleting the number of paid holidays provided for in an 39 agreement between employees and employers of political subdivisions

1 of the state or as established by ordinance or resolution of the 2 local government legislative authority.

3 (7) The legislature declares that the following days are
