READ FIRST TIME 02/06/18.

1 AN ACT Relating to the presumption of occupational disease for 2 purposes of workers' compensation by adding medical conditions to the 3 presumption and extending the presumption to certain publicly 4 employed firefighters and investigators and law enforcement; and 5 amending RCW 51.32.185.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

7 Sec. 1. RCW 51.32.185 and 2007 c 490 s 2 are each amended to 8 read as follows:

9 (1)(a) In the case of firefighters as defined in RCW
10 41.26.030(~~((+4))~~) (16) (a), (b), (~~((and))~~) (c), and (h) who are covered
11 under Title 51 RCW and firefighters, including supervisors, employed 12 on a full-time, fully compensated basis as a firefighter of a private 13 sector employer's fire department that includes over fifty such 14 firefighters, and public employee fire investigators, there shall 15 exist a prima facie presumption that: (~~((+a))~~) (i) Respiratory 16 disease; (~~((+b))~~) (ii) any heart problems, experienced within seventy-17 two hours of exposure to smoke, fumes, or toxic substances, or 18 experienced within twenty-four hours of strenuous physical exertion
19 due to firefighting activities; (~~((+e))~~) (iii) cancer; and (~~((+d))~~)
20 (iv) infectious diseases are occupational diseases under RCW
21 51.08.140.

1 (b) In the case of law enforcement officers as defined in RCW
2 41.26.030(18) (b), (c), and (e) who are covered under Title 51 RCW,
3 there shall exist a prima facie presumption that: (i) Any heart
4 problems experienced within seventy-two hours of exposure to smoke,
5 fumes, or toxic substances, or experienced within twenty-four hours
6 of strenuous physical exertion in the line of duty; and (ii)
7 infectious diseases are occupational diseases under RCW 51.08.140.

8 (c) This presumption of occupational disease established in (a)
9 and (b) of this subsection may be rebutted by a preponderance of the 10 evidence. Such evidence may include, but is not limited to, use of 11 tobacco products, physical fitness and weight, lifestyle, hereditary 12 factors, and exposure from other employment or nonemployment
13 activities.

14 (2) The presumptions established in subsection (1) of this 15 section shall be extended to an applicable member following
16 termination of service for a period of three calendar months for each
17 year of requisite service, but may not extend more than sixty months
18 following the last date of employment.

19 (3)~~(a)~~ The presumption established in subsection (1)~~((e))~~ 20 (a)(iii) of this section shall only apply to any active or former 21 firefighter or fire investigator who:

22 (i) Has cancer that develops or manifests itself after the 23 firefighter or fire investigator has served at least ten years; and 24 ~~((who))~~

25 (ii)(A) Subject to (a)(ii)(B) of this subsection, was given a
26 qualifying medical examination upon becoming a firefighter or fire
27 investigator that showed no evidence of cancer. ((The presumption 28 within subsection (1)(c) of this section shall only apply to))

29 (B) If a firefighter as defined in RCW 41.26.030(16)(h) who 30 became a firefighter before July 1, 2018, or fire investigator who 31 became a fire investigator before July 1, 2018, did not receive a
32 qualifying medical examination upon becoming a firefighter or fire
33 investigator, the firefighter or fire investigator satisfies the 34 qualifying medical examination requirement if the firefighter or fire
35 investigator received a qualifying medical examination on or before 36 July 1, 2019. In addition, if the firefighter or fire investigator is 37 diagnosed with a cancer listed in (b) of this subsection at the time 38 of the qualifying medical examination and otherwise meets the 39 requirements of this section, the presumption established in 40 subsection (1)(a)(iii) of this section applies.

1 (b) The presumption established in subsection (1)(a)(iii) of this
2 section shall only apply to the following cancers: Prostate cancer
3 diagnosed prior to the age of fifty, primary brain cancer, malignant
4 melanoma, leukemia, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, bladder cancer, ureter
5 cancer, colorectal cancer, multiple myeloma, testicular cancer,
6 ((and)) kidney cancer, mesothelioma, adenocarcinoma, stomach cancer,
7 esophageal cancer, buccal cancer, pharynx cancer, nonmelanoma skin
8 cancer, breast cancer, and cervical cancer.

9 (4) The presumption established in subsection (1)((~~d~~)) (a)(iv)
10 and (b)(ii) of this section shall be extended to any firefighter, 11 fire investigator, or law enforcement officer who has contracted any 12 of the following infectious diseases: Human immunodeficiency virus/
13 acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, all strains of hepatitis, 14 meningococcal meningitis, ((~~e~~)) mycobacterium tuberculosis, or 15 methicillin-resistant staphylococcus aureus.

16 (5) Beginning July 1, 2003, this section does not apply to a 17 firefighter, fire investigator, or law enforcement officer who 18 develops a heart or lung condition and who is a regular user of 19 tobacco products or who has a history of tobacco use. The department, 20 using existing medical research, shall define in rule the extent of 21 tobacco use that shall exclude a firefighter, fire investigator, or 22 law enforcement officer from the provisions of this section.

23 (6) For purposes of this section, "firefighting activities" means 24 fire suppression, fire prevention, fire investigation, emergency
25 medical services, rescue operations, hazardous materials response, 26 aircraft rescue, and training and other assigned duties related to 27 emergency response.

28 (7)(a) When a determination involving the presumption established
29 in this section is appealed to the board of industrial insurance 30 appeals and the final decision allows the claim for benefits, the 31 board of industrial insurance appeals shall order that all reasonable
32 costs of the appeal, including attorney fees and witness fees, be
33 paid to the firefighter, fire investigator, or law enforcement
34 officer or his or her beneficiary by the opposing party.

35 (b) When a determination involving the presumption established in 36 this section is appealed to any court and the final decision allows 37 the claim for benefits, the court shall order that all reasonable
38 costs of the appeal, including attorney fees and witness fees, be
39 paid to the firefighter, fire investigator, or law enforcement
40 officer or his or her beneficiary by the opposing party.

1 (c) When reasonable costs of the appeal must be paid by the 2 department under this section in a state fund case, the costs shall 3 be paid from the accident fund and charged to the costs of the claim.
