

HB 1028 - DIGEST

Ensures that cities retain proper latitude, via air regulations or traffic controls, to address risks to public health and safety that may be posed by certain industrial facilities that have a propensity for generating foul odors and nuisance complaints.