

HB 1093 - DIGEST

Provides that if a court determines that an offender is homeless or a person who is mentally ill, failure to pay towards a legal financial obligation that is a condition or requirement of a sentence is not willful noncompliance and shall not subject the offender to penalties.