

HB 1171 - DIGEST

(SEE ALSO PROPOSED 1ST SUB)

Directs the department of commerce, in consultation with the department of health and the department of ecology, to complete a study regarding air quality implications of air traffic at the international airport in Washington with the highest number of total annual departures and arrivals.