

HB 1334 - DIGEST

Revises the energy independence act and declares that this state can promote energy independence, create high-quality jobs in the clean energy sector, maintain stable and affordable rates for all customers, especially low-income customers, and protect clean air and water in the Pacific Northwest.