

HB 1460 - DIGEST

Revises statutory processes of relinquishment.

Establishes a presumption that water right holders have been putting water to beneficial use, in absence of evidence that water rights have been intentionally abandoned under common law doctrine that provides for the loss of water rights.