

HB 1774 - DIGEST

Establishes the environmental protection land exchange act.

Authorizes local governments, that are within rural counties, to designate and permit development on parcels of property outside of urban growth areas, to urban levels of service, without expanding the urban growth areas if certain square footage requirements are met.

States that nothing in this act authorizes the growth management hearings board to hear petitions alleging noncompliance with this act.