

HB 2054 - DIGEST

Reverses the changes to foster parent licensing rules, by the department of social and health services, forbidding home-based instruction to children in the care and custody of the department and allows foster parents to provide home-based instruction to foster youth.

Prohibits the department of social and health services from denying a foster-family home license on the sole basis that a foster youth received home-based instruction.