

HB 2252 - DIGEST

Revises requirements of the institutions of higher education when establishing policies for granting college credits to students who have earned certain scores on AP or international baccalaureate examinations.